MISSION

The National Park Service preserves unimpaired the natural and cultural resources and values of the national park system for the enjoyment, education, and inspiration of this and future generations.

The Park Service cooperates with partners to extend the benefits of natural and cultural resource conservation and outdoor recreation throughout this country and the world.

To achieve this mission, the National Park Service adheres to the following guiding principles:

Excellent Service: Providing the best possible service to park visitors and partners.

Productive Partnerships: Collaborating with federal, state, tribal, and local governments, private organizations, and businesses to work toward common goals.

Citizen Involvement: Providing opportunities for citizens to participate in the decisions and actions of the National Park Service.

Heritage Education: Educating park visitors and the general public about their history and common heritage.

Outstanding Employees: Empowering a diverse workforce committed to excellence, integrity, and quality work.

Employee Development: Providing developmental opportunities and training so employees have the "tools to do the job" safely and efficiently.

Wise Decisions: Integrating social, economic, environmental, and ethical considerations into the decision-making process.

Effective Management: Instilling a performance management philosophy that fosters creativity, focuses on results, and requires accountability at all levels.

Research and Technology: Incorporating research findings and new technologies to improve work practices, products, and services.

Shared Capabilities: Sharing technical information and expertise with public and private land managers.

About the National Parks of New York Harbor

The National Parks of New York Harbor consists of 10 national parks, and one affiliated site, in the New York-New Jersey metropolitan area. With 23 unique destinations, these National Parks include nearly 27,000 acres and welcome more than 12 million visitors each year. Six of the 10 national parks are located in Manhattan: African Burial Ground National Monument, General Grant National Memorial, Hamilton Grange National Memorial, Theodore Roosevelt Birthplace National Historic Site, Castle Clinton National Monument, Federal Hall National Memorial, and the Lower East Side Tenement Museum, an affiliated site. St. Paul's Church National Historic Site is in Westchester County, NY. The other parks are the Gateway National Recreation Area, located in the boroughs of Brooklyn, Queens and Sandy Hook, NJ, the Statue of Librty National Monument and Ellis Island and Governors Island National Monument.
