

Historic Photos of Lee Drive Entrance at Lafayette Boulevard (US Route 1 Business)

1935 - Looking southeast across Lafayette Boulevard at Lee Drive. The north arm of the Lee Drive Entrance is to the left. Note the grading and work going on inside the triangle

1935 – Looking southeast across Lafayette Boulevard at Lee Drive. The north arm of Lee Drive is at center. Note the complete grading and planting. Coolidge Dedication Monument is visible in the background, at its original location on the outside of the south arm of the Lee Drive Entrance.

1935 – looking southeast at the point of the triangle where the south and north arms of the Lee Drive Entrance converge. Note the large entrance sign where the Coolidge Dedication Monument now stands.

1935 – looking east across Lafayette Boulevard at the Coolidge Dedication Monument in its original location on the outside of the south arm of the Lee Drive Entrance.

1935 – looking southwest at the Coolidge Dedication Monument having been moved to its new and current location at the point of the triangle where the south and north arms of the Lee Drive Entrance converge.

1937 – looking southeast across Lafayette Boulevard at Lee Drive. The north arm of Lee Drive is at center. Note Coolidge Dedication Monument is visible in the background, at its new and current location at the point of the triangle where the south and north arms of the Lee Drive Entrance converge.

1941 – looking southeast across Lafayette Boulevard at Lee Drive. The north arm of Lee Drive is at center. Note the marquee entrance sign at the point where the north arm of the Le Drive Entrance meets Lafayette Boulevard.