Overview of Landscape History

Washington & Barnum Islands

Cultural Landscape Report & Environmental Assessment

1672 First Detailed Map of Lake Superior

Washington & Barnum Islands

Cultural Landscape Report & Environmental Assessment

Native American Use

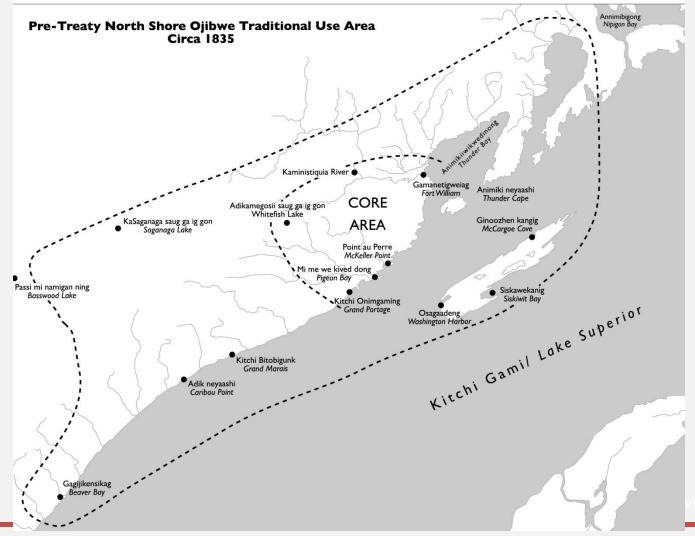

Washington & Barnum Islands

Cultural Landscape Report & Environmental Assessment

Pre-Treaty North Shore Ojibwe Traditional Use Area, ca. 1835

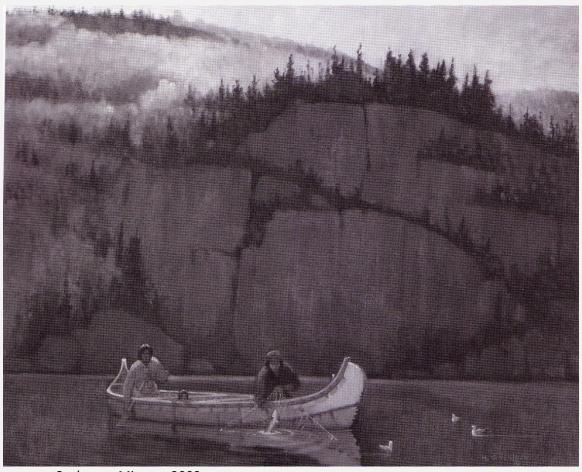

Washington & Barnum Islands

Cultural Landscape Report & Environmental Assessment

Gill Net Fishing from Canoe

source: Cochrane, Minong, 2009: Watercolor "Gill Net Fishing from Canoe" by Howard Sivertson

Washington & Barnum Islands

Cultural Landscape Report & Environmental Assessment

1844 Isle Royale Compact, first page

Whereas a difference of friend has here-Chiphena Indian of the Missipili & Lake Superior in relation to the cepion of Isle Royale, by the treaty La Pointe in the Territory of Wixensin - Be it theriface correspond known, that the Said Indians hereby declare them selves satisfied with the explanations now made by the commissioner of the United States, of the said Isle Royale hav-Fresents, they rately and confirm said cession - ale consideration of which & the regard which the Exercisent of the United State hears to his red children of the Chippena hation - From hundred dollar worth of Gun Souder, & Onehundred dollars worth of perh Buf, shall be delivere to the said Indiany, on their signing this compact _ In witry, whereof, we hereunto set our hand, at a Counte, they 20 day of august A. D. 1844 . -In gruence of Unite State Commissioner William Macsonald pno Rulbert (Mab ish gag gang e Cynes mendenhall. Clement A Beaulier Jac. Knisteno Wde kum ag Now in e win as of Hays h. S. S. Ind agg Medge work gor und x Win W Marren Inter.

source: Cochrane, Minong, 2009: National Archives, Washington, D.C.

Little Caribou

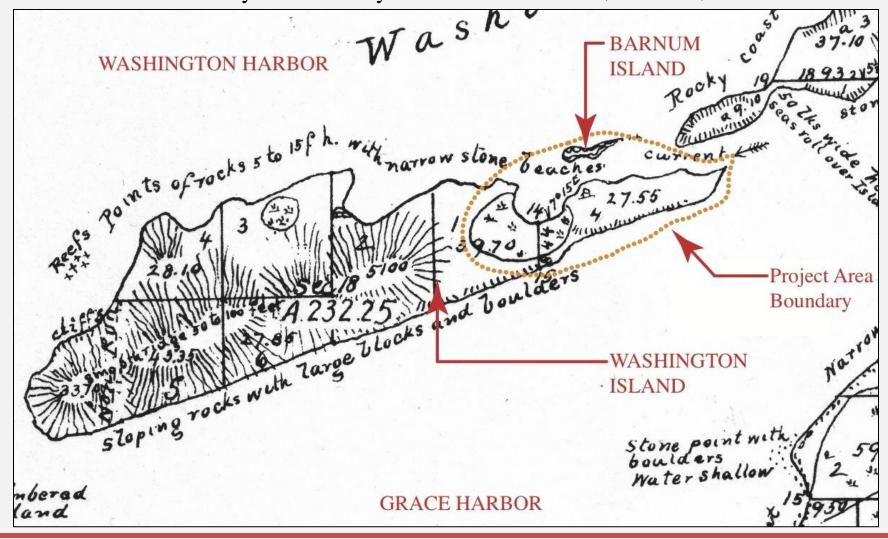

source: Cochrane, Minong, 2009: Lithograph by James Otto Lewis, 1836

Washington & Barnum Islands

Cultural Landscape Report & Environmental Assessment

Survey conducted by William Ives in 1847 (ISRO archives)

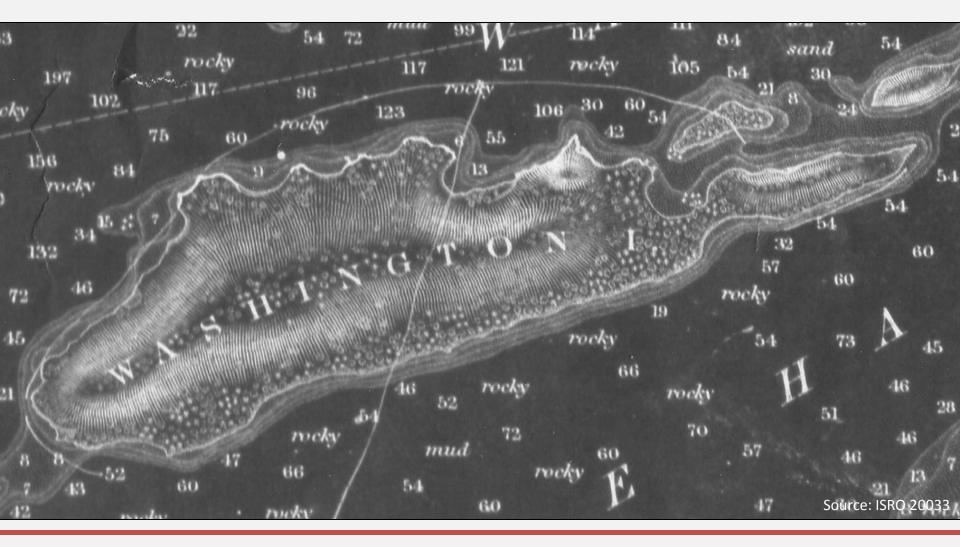

Washington & Barnum Islands

Cultural Landscape Report & Environmental Assessment

1871 Chart

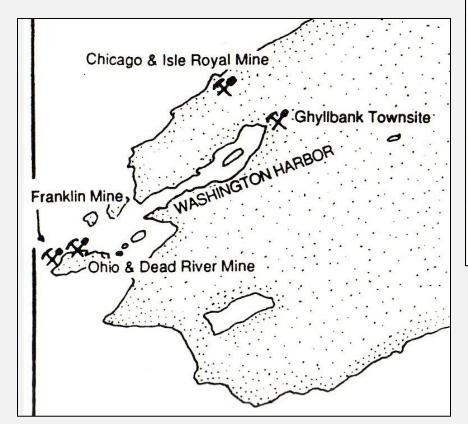

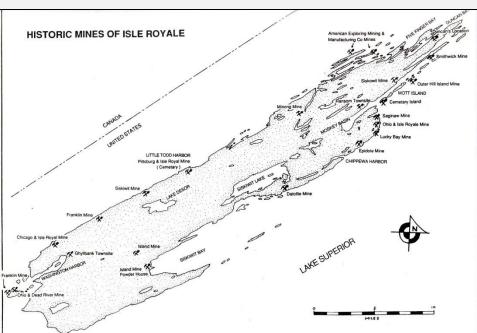

Washington & Barnum Islands

Cultural Landscape Report & Environmental Assessment

Historic Mines

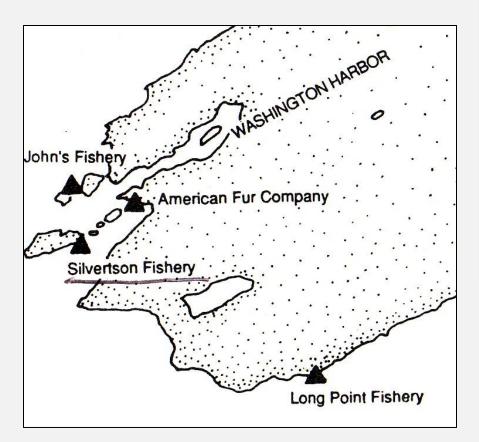

(source: Karamanski & Zeitlin, 1988, 60

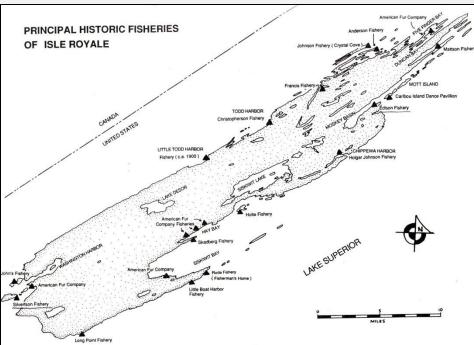

Washington & Barnum Islands

Cultural Landscape Report & Environmental Assessment

Historic Fisheries

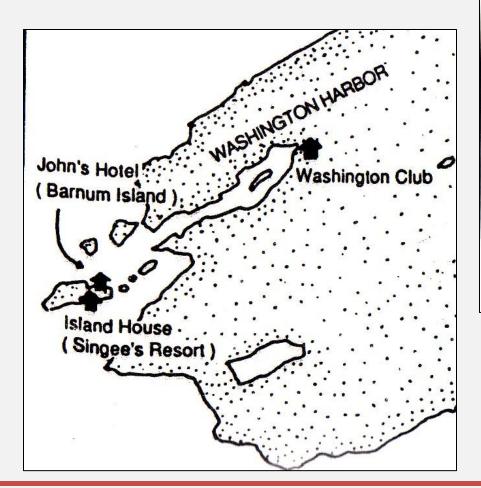

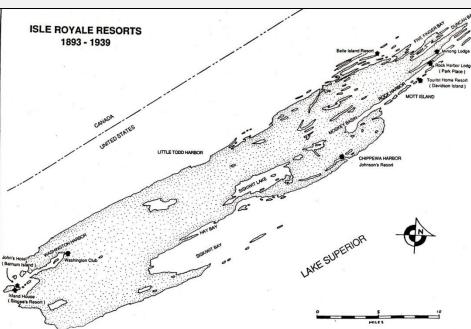

Washington & Barnum Islands

Cultural Landscape Report & Environmental Assessment

Historic Resorts

(source: Karamanski & Zeitlin. 1988. 219

Washington & Barnum Islands

Cultural Landscape Report & Environmental Assessment