Continuation of Current Management (No Action) San Gabriel Watershed and Mountains Special Resource Study Angeles National Palmdale Castaic Mountains Forest Acton Angeles National Forest San Gabriel Mountains Santa Monica Mtns Pasadena National Recreation Area (NPS) Azusa San Gabriel Los Angeles Pomona Sánta Monica Puente-Chino Hills San Gabriel Watershed and Mountains Study Area Santa Fe Springs Sanitation Districts of Los Angeles County Existing NPS Units and Programs Juan Bautista de Anza National Historic Trail (NPS) Old Spanish National HistoricTrail (NPS) Route 66 Corridor Program Existing Protected Lands 10 California Department of Parks and Recreation Miles Irrigation Districts Land Trust/Conservancy Los Angeles County Flood Control District Los Angeles, County of Continuation of Current Management Highlights Mountains Recreation and Conservation Authority Native Habitat Preservation Authority Current programs and policies of existing federal, state, county, and non-profit conservation organizations Santa Monica Mountains Conservancy would remain in place. United States Army Corps of Engineers United States Bureau of Land Management United States Forest Service Current conditions and trends would continue. Watershed Conservation Authority Water District Lands No new unit of the national park system would be established. National Park Service, Pacific West Regional Office Sources: Existing Protected Lands, California Protected Areas Database (June 2010), Proposed Alternatives and Study Area (NPS), Rivers (National Hydrography Dataset, USGS). Updated August 2011 The NPS makes no warranty, express or implied, related to the accuracy or content of this map.