

COUNTY: FRANKLIN	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	ALABAMA IRON WORKS CEDAR CREEK FURNACE (RUINS)	Just south of Russellville near Rockwood	River	Listed on the National Register. This is the first blast furnace in Alabama, constructed in 1815 by Joseph Heslip, from Pennsylvania. The furnace was 25 feet tall, of rough stone construction.	Private
	A.T. BONDS HOUSE	Past Guinn crossroads 4 mi, R (N) no 1 st paved road Pleasant Grove	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. This pre-Civil War log home is considered one of the oldest houses in the area.	Private
	CLAYTON-HESTER HOUSE	From Frankfort, go E 3.1 mi on F- 58, R (S) on paved road, go 4 mi on east side of road, Frankfort	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Built in 1888 by Walter Hester in a transitional style between the log and the frame house.	Private

COUNTY: FRANKLIN	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	COUNTS HOUSE	CR 78, New Boston	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Built ca. 1835 by Major Jesse Counts, this home is the only surviving building of the early town of Boston. Major Counts laid out the town of Boston following the Indian Campaigns with Andrew Jackson.	Private
	FIVE-OAKS SPRINGS	Blocks bounded by S Washington, Gaines Ave, and Montgomery and town Branch, Russellville	Native American	Listed on the Alabama Register. Native Americans watered at this spring before General Jackson used the site as camping grounds for his men laying out the Military Road. The Spring is one of the primary reasons Russellville was relocated to its present site in 1818.	Public (City of Russellville)

COUNTY: FRANKLIN	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	HULSEY-SOUTH HOUSE	CR 48, Tharptown (Tharp Springs), 5 mi E of Russellville	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Built prior to 1876, this home is the oldest surviving house in Tharptown and is an example of regional pioneer architecture.	Private
	HURLEY CEMETERY	9 mi E of Russellville off of Hwy 24 and S of Hwy 24, 1.9 mi on County Hwy 81, Russellville	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Burial site of Major William Russell, veteran of War of 1812 and founder of Russellville.	Public

COUNTY: FRANKLIN	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	KIRKWOOD	1102 Daily Lane, Russellville	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. This ca. 1830 home of James Myrick Kirk is one of the few remaining log structures in the county and one of the only remaining on its original site. Kirk fought under Andrew Jackson in 1818 in the Seminole Wars.	Private
	MALONE HOUSE	E on F-41, go 1.5 mi, turn R (W), follow old dirt road for .1 mi, house sits on S side near Frankfort	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. This ca. 1820 home was built by James Malone, who owned a sizable plantation and a large number of slaves.	Private
	MCINTOSH HOUSE	601 N Jackson Ave, Russellville	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. This turn of the century home and outbuildings were built by Alfred Wilkerson in the heart of downtown Russellville.	Private

COUNTY: FRANKLIN	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	MOUNT PLEASANT CHURCH	SR 24 near Newburg, 7.5 mi E of Russellville	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. The original church was replaced in 1900, but the church yard and cemetery reflect the pioneer history of the area and the localities from which early settlers emigrated.	Private
	NEWBURG MASONIC LODGE	Off Hwy 24 approx 8 mi E of Russellville off Hwy 43	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Ca. 1878
	OVERTON FARM	Four miles northwest of Hodges	River	Listed on the National Register. Established by Abner Overton in 1838. Today, eighty acres of the farm contains one building and four structures and operates as a reconstructed farmstead museum of living history.	Local

COUNTY: FRANKLIN	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	STUMPE HOUSE	Jackson Hwy (Hwy 47), St. Florian	River	NRHP Eligible. Built ca, 1880, the house was one of the first build in St. Florian and is one of the few remaining from this period. This late 19 th century vernacular embodies German Catholic cultural traditions that defined the agricultural community.

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	ABSTRACT BUILDING	Florence, 119 S. Court Street	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Commercial building in the Romanesque style. Built in 1905 by Mr. J.E.F. Westmoreland, a leading businessman, for his mercantile.	Private
	ASHCRAFT- INGRAM HOUSE	Florence, 803 Meridian Street	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Ca. 1890 dwelling built by J.B. Hawthorne, a Baptist minister who came to Florence from Alabama in 1888.	Private
	BAYLES, DR. L.E. HOUSE	N. edge of town, E. side of Hwy. 207 through Anderson	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Ca. 1915 home of Dr. Lewis Eugene Bayles, a doctor, merchant, and cotton gin owner; built by a carpenter named McConnell.	Private

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	BOWEN, WILLIAM, LUSTRON HOUSE	Florence, Court St.	River	Listed on the National Register. Post-WWII, the U.S. govt. encouraged innovative design for new housing, and entrepreneur Carl Strandlund created the steel-construction Lustron houses with porcelain-coated steel panels.	Private
	DARBY, E.H., LUSTRON HOUSE	Florence, 321 Beverly	River	Listed on the National Register. The Lustron Corp. received over 20,000 orders for the efficient, modern houses, but only 2,498 were built.	Private

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	CHERRY STREET HISTORIC DISTRICT	Florence, between Hermitage Dr. and E. Tombigbee St.	River	Listed on the National Register. Cherry Street was originally laid out in 1818. The district includes a total of 71 structures from 1889-1947.	Multiple Private
	COLLEGE PLACE HISTORIC DISTRICT	Florence, Sherwood Ave., W. Lelia & W. Mattie Lou Sts.	River	Listed on the National & Alabama Registers. The district has 85 early 20 th c. dwellings in the Prairie, Tudor Revival, and Craftsman styles.	Private
	COURTVIEW (Rogers Hall)	Florence, Court St.	River	Listed on the National Register. 1855 Greek Revival style dwelling was the town home of planter George Washington Foster. It is now part of the campus of the Univ. of N. AL.	State

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	DOWDY HOMESTEAD	10 miles NW of Florence	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Oral tradition dates the hewn-log dwelling to 1837.	Private
	DOWNTOWN FLORENCE HISTORIC DISTRICT	Florence	River	Listed on the National Register. The oldest of these buildings dates to ca. 1880, when Florence's population jumped by 500% with the industrial boom.	Local; Federal; Private

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	EAST FLORENCE HISTORIC DISTRICT	Florence, Huntsville Road & Royal Ave.	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Includes 55 structures from 1830s-1920s with influences of Greek Revival, Queen Anne, bungalow, Georgian Revival, Spanish Colonial Revival styles.	Private, multiple
	FORKS OF CYPRESS PLANTATION	Florence vcn.	River	Listed on the National & Alabama Registers. Former 700-acre estate of James Jackson, who raised cotton and owned the famous race-horses Leviathan and Glencoe; has ruins of ca. 1830 Greek Revival dwelling.	Private

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	FUQUA PLACE	Near Rogersville: from Hwy 72E, S. onto Lamb's Ferry Rd., L. onto CR 70, 3 rd house on right.	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. 1836 home of John C. Fuqua, early settler.	Private
	GASKINS BUILDING	Florence, 218 N. Court Street	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Ca. 1894 brick, commercial building	Private

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	HALL- WESTMORELAND HOME	Florence, 652 Wood Avenue	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Ca. 1900 dwelling originally built for John Hall; features detailed wood trim and a tower with a pyramidal roof.	Private
	HANDY, W.C., HOME & BIRTHPLACE	Florence, 620 W. College Street	Music	Listed on the Alabama Register. Birthplace of the “father of the Blues,” America’s indigenous musical style; moved from its original location, it is now a museum of Handy’s career.	Local

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	JACKSON, ARISTIDES, HOUSE	¼ mile east of Elgin, N. side of Hwy. 72	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Ca. 1840 home of the son of Benjamin Jackson, and early settler who came in the 1820s from Edward County, VA	Private
	KARSNER- KENNEDY HOUSE (Karsner-Carroll House)	Florence, 303 N. Pine St.	River	Listed on the National Register. This ca. 1825 brick dwelling is an excellent example of the Federal style.	Private
	KILLEN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL	Killen community	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Built in 1935 at the petition of citizens and local politicians. Used as a school until 1966.	Local

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	LAMAR BUILDING	Florence, 111 S. Court Street	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. 1888 building originally constructed as the Florence Hotel; features Carrara glass on the exterior.	Private
	LARIMORE HOUSE (Mars Hill Bible School)	Florence, Mars Hill Road	River	Listed on the National Register. 1870 home of Esther & Theophilus B. Larimore was a school for Church of Christ ministers in the 1870s; classroom for Mars Hill Bible School in the 1940s.	Private

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	LEFTWICH- DILLARD HOUSE	Florence, 612 Wood Avenue	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. 1888 home of Jesse Leftwich; bought by Mason Dillard in 1901. Features detailed wood work and corner tower.	Private
	LITTLETON-HOLT LOG CABIN	N. of Cloverdale, near Bethel Grove Church	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Ca. 1818 log dwelling built by Revolutionary War soldier Charles Littleton. One of the county's oldest structures.	Private

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	LOCK #3 OF MUSCLE SHOALS CANAL	At mouth of Bluewater Creek	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. The canal made navigation of the Tennessee River possible at low water levels with exposed shoals.	Federal
	LOCUST STREET HISTORIC DISTRICT	Florence, Pine, College & Locust Sts, Irvine Ave.	River	Listed on the National Register. One of the city's earliest neighborhoods from the 1830s; late-19th & early-20th century revival styles.	Private

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	MAPLETON (Coulter, George, House)	420 South Pine Street, Florence	River	Listed on the National Register. Ca. 1830 Greek Revival dwelling was the home of Major Robert McFarland, his wife Katie, and their 7 children.	Private
	MARS HILL CHURCH OF CHRIST	Florence, Mars Hill Road, Rt. 11	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. 1904 rural community church built with help from T.B. Larimore, a prominent Church of Christ minister.	Private
	MARTIN-BOUNDS HOUSE	1400 Cypress Mill Road, Florence	River	Listed on the National Register. Ca. 1843 dwelling was home of James Martin, co-owner of Skipworth Cotton Mill on Cypress Creek.	Private

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	NEON SIGN, COCA-COLA BOTTLING	Florence, 502 S. Court Street	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Built by the Columbia Neon Company of Sheffield, AL, the 14' x 26' signs were once a popular art form in advertising.	Private
	OLD NATCHEZ TRACE (NO. 310-2A)	Florence Vicinity (15 miles northwest of Florence on State Route 20)	River; Native American	Listed on the National Register. Flatboats shipped goods down the Ohio and Tennessee Rivers to New Orleans. Their operators returned home via the Natchez Trace, originally migration paths of bison, then used by Native Americans.	Federal

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	POPE'S TAVERN	Florence, 203 Hermitage Drive	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Ca. 1810 stagecoach stop on the Military Road between Nashville and New Orleans.	Local
	ROGERS DEPARTMENT STORE	117 North Court St., Florence	River	Listed on the National Register. Art Deco style building designed by architects James, Forman, Hulsey, and Hall.	Private
	ROSENBAUM (STANLEY AND MILDRED) HOUSE	601 Riverview Drive, Florence	River	Listed on the National Register. This 1940 Prairie style dwelling is the only Frank Lloyd Wright structure in Alabama.	City; museum open to the public

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	ST. FLORIAN HISTORIC DISTRICT	St. Florian	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Rural community settled by German farmers in 1872; includes dwellings, a Century Farm, a school, a cemetery, and a community center.	Private, multiple; Local
	SANNONER HISTORIC DISTRICT	N. Court & N. Pine between Tuscaloosa Avenue & Univ. of N. Alabama, Florence	River	Listed on the National Register. Includes Federal, Greek Revival, Late Victorian buildings and an 1826 example of the Spanish Revival style.	Private; multiple
	SEMINARY-O'NEAL HISTORIC DISTRICT	Seminary St. between Hermitage Dr. & Irvine Ave. and Irvine between Seminary & Wood Ave., Florence	River	Listed on the National Register. 19 structures ca. 1908 – 1943, with two Sear-Roebuck kit houses. Members of O'Neal family served as AL governors	Private; multiple

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	SEVEN MILE ISLAND ARCHAEOLOGICAL DISTRICT	Florence, within the TN River	Native American	Period of significance is c. 8000 B.C.-1650 A.D. Restricted wildlife management area of 4,685 acres	Federal
	SIMPSON-WOOD HOUSE	Florence, 640 N. Wood Avenue	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Ca. 1830 dwelling built by John Simpson, sold to William B. Wood of a prominent local family, for whom Wood Avenue was named.	Private
	SOUTHALL DRUGS	201 North Court Street, Florence	River	Italianate style building from 1900. Charles Morton Southall operated his wholesale/retail drug business here. Designed by John Mott of Ft. Smith, Arkansas.	Private

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	SWEETWATER PLANTATION (Governor Robert Patton Home)	At Sweetwater and Florence Blvd., Florence	River	1835 Georgian style dwelling built by Major General John Brahan. His son's brother-in-law Robert M Patton was governor 1865-1868.	Private
	THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH ALABAMA (UNA)	Florence	River	NRHP Eligible. Historic core of UNA campus consists of 11 contributing buildings built between 1855-1947. The core represents the work of the Olmstead Brothers and Warren, Knight, and Davis. UNA was the first normal school in the state.	State

	WALNUT STREET HISTORIC DISTRICT	N. Walnut between Hermitage & Tuscaloosa, Florence	River	29 structures from 1870-1930; Late Victorian, Revival styles, Craftsman bungalows, Colonial Revival.	Private; multiple
	WESLEY CHAPLE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH CEMETERY	Florence, Rt. 2	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Early 19 th century cemetery with oldest marker dating to 1819.	Private

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	WESLEYAN HALL	Morrison Ave., Florence	River	This Gothic Revival style building dates to 1855.	State: Univ. of N. AL
	WILLIAMSON, CLYDE, LUSTRON HOUSE	1822 Ridge Ave.	River	One of three Lustron houses in the Heritage Area.	Private
	WILSON PARK HISTORIC DISTRICT	Florence, between Wood Avenue and Seminary Street	River	Listed on the Alabama Register. Religious structures and dwellings of the late Victorian period.	Private, multiple

COUNTY: LAUDERDALE	RESOURCE HISTORIC NAME SURVEY NUMBER	LOCATION	THEME	REMARKS	OWNER
	WOOD AVENUE HISTORIC DISTRICT	Wood Avenue, between Tuscaloosa & Hawthorne Streets, Florence	River	Includes Colonial Revival, Queen Anne, Bungalow/Craftsman from 1880-1930	Private; multiple

