Proposed Fee Increases within Golden Gate National Recreation Area

In fiscal year 2016, the National Park Service is increasing entrance and other fees at National Park locations across the country. As part of this service-wide action, Golden Gate National Recreation Area will increasing certain fees within National Park units that it administers. The revenue from these fee increases will be used to provide enhanced visitor experiences and other services, including rehabilitation of trails, installation and repair of interpretive exhibits, repair and maintenance of historic facilities, and resource protection.

EXPERIENCE YOUR AMERICA™

The National Park Service cares for special places saved by the American people so that all may experience our heritage.
