

APPENDIX T: C&O CANAL NHP – HERP SPECIES OBSERVED

Georgetown University Boathouse
Environmental Assessment

April 2006

Herp Species observed by habitat at CHOH Surveys
Dr. Thomas K. Pauley, Marshall University

Inventory and Monitoring Program
National Capital Region Network
Center for Urban Ecology
Washington D.C.
TIC #: NCRO-D-61

July 12, 2005

Scientific Name, Common Name

Frogs and Toad,

Bufo a. americanus, Eastern American Toad

Hyla versicolor, Gray Treefrog,

Rana c. melanota, Northern Green Frog

Rana catesbeiana, American Bullfrog

Rana palustris, Pickerel Frog

Rana sylvatica, Wood Frog

Salamanders,

Ambystoma jeffersonianum, Jefferson Salamander

Ambystoma maculatum, Spotted Salamander

Ambystoma opacum, Marbled Salamander

Eurycea bislineata, Northern Two-lined Salamander

Eurycea longicauda, Long-tailed Salamander

Notophthalmus v. viridescens, Red-spotted Newt

Plethodon cinereus, Eastern Red-backed Salamander

Plethodon hoffmani, Valley and Ridge Salamander

Lizards,

Eumeces fasciatus, Five-lined Skink

Sceloporus undulates, Eastern Fence Lizard

Snakes,

Diadophis p. edwardsii, Northern Ring-necked Snake

Elaphe o. obsoleta, Black Ratsnake

Nerodia s. sipedon, Common Watersnake

Thamnophis s. sauritus, Common Ribbonsnake

Thamnophis s. sirtalis, Eastern Gartersnake

Turtles,

Chelydra s. serpentina, Eastern Snapping Turtle

Chrysemys p. picta, Eastern Painted Turtle

Glyptemys insculpta, Wood Turtle

Pseudemys rubriventris, Northern Red-bellied Cooter

Sternotherus odoratus, Stinkpot

Terrapene c. carolina, Eastern Box Turtle