

Table of Contents

1. Introduction

Planning Process
Purpose of the General Management Plan
Issues Addressed

2. Background of the National Monument

History of the Internment and Incarceration of Nikkei at
Minidoka Relocation Center
Establishment of Minidoka Internment NM
Actions Affecting Minidoka Internment NM after Its Establishment
Purpose of Minidoka Internment NM
Significance of Minidoka Internment NM
Interpretive Themes for Minidoka Internment NM
Desired Future Conditions

3. General Management Plan

Management Zones
Cultural Resource Management
Education and Interpretation
Visitor Facilities
Natural Resource Management
Scenic Resource Management
Partnerships and Outreach
Access, Circulation, and Parking
Land Protection and Boundaries
Carrying Capacity
Park Operations and Management
Action Plans and Studies
Actions Requiring Cooperation with Partners

1	4. Public Involvement and Consultation	91
2	Public Scoping	92
3	Summary of Scoping Comments	94
4	Draft Alternatives Public Process	103
	Summary of Draft Alternatives Public Comments	106
9	Draft GMP/EIS Public Process	114
	Summary of Draft GMP/EIS Public Comments	115
9	Comments on Implementation of the Plan	121
46	Agency Consultation and Coordination	129
	Print and Broadcast Media	130
47
50	5. Affected Environment	135
50	Location and Setting	135
52	Origin, Meaning, and Use of the words Minidoka and Hunt	135
55	The Cultural Environment	139
	Pre-History and Early History of Minidoka Internment
59	NM Environs	140
59	Archeological Resources	143
63	Cultural Landscape Resources	150
70	Historic Buildings and Structures	153
73	Archival and Museum Collections	157
75	Sites Associated with Minidoka Internment NM	159
76	NPS Involvement with Sites Associated with the
76	Internment and Incarceration of Nikkei
77	during World War II	166
78	Education and Interpretation	166
81	Minidoka Internment National Monument Interpretive
84	Themes	168
85	Southern Idaho Interpretive Themes	168
86	Educational and Interpretive Programs at Related
	Historic Sites and Institutions	168

Ongoing Partnership Programs	169	Demographics - Population Trends; Racial & Ethnic
Visitor Use and Recreation	170	Composition	201
Visitor Use Patterns and Trends	170	Contemporary Japanese Americans	202
Recreation Trends	173	Contemporary Local Community	205
Pilgrimages	177	Tribal Interests	205
Heritage Tourism	178	Labor Force, Employment, and Employers	206
The Natural Environment	178	Minidoka Internment NM Site Agreements	207
Environmental and Physiographic Context	178	Land Use Documents, Related Plans, and Programs	208
Soils	179
Vegetation	180	Appendices	211
Wildlife	182	Appendix A: Minidoka Internment NM Proclamation	211
Threatened and Endangered Species	184	Appendix B: Record of Decision	214
Water Resources	185
Air Quality	185	Glossary	223
Soundscape	185	Abbreviations and Acronyms	231
Night Sky	186	Bibliography	232
Hazardous Materials	187	List of Preparers	237
Fire and Fire Management	188
Visual and Scenic Resources	189
Partnerships, Outreach, and Neighbors	194
Opportunities for Partnership	194
North Side Canal	195
Access, Circulation, Roads, and Parking	196
Park Boundary and Land Protection	197
Park Operations and Management	199
Operations	199
Signs and Information	199
Utility Systems	199
Socioeconomic Factors	200
Location	200
Roads and Highways	200
Land Use and Ownership Patterns	200

List of Maps

Map Name:	Page:
Associated Sites	14
Minidoka Relocation Center -1945	21
Management Zones	60
Boundary Modifications	80
Regional Map	136
Local Context	137
Minidoka Internment National Monument	145
Southern Idaho	172
Land Ownership	198
Development Concept Plan	Back Sleeve

List of Tables

Table Number and Title:	Page:
Table 1: Management Zones	61
Table 2: Proposed Staffing	84
Table 3: Cost Estimates of Implementing the General Management Plan	86
Table 4: Summary of Actions in the General Management Plan	87
Table 5: Public Scoping Workshops 2002	94
Table 6: Public Draft Alternatives Workshops 2003	105
Table 7: Public Draft GMP/EIS Workshops 2005	115
Table 8: Media Organizations on the Minidoka Internment NM Mailing List	130
Table 9: Federally Designated Sites Related to the Internment and Incarceration of Nikkei During World War II	167
Table 10: Driving Distances between Minidoka Internment NM and Regional Recreation Sites	177
Table 11: Problematic Weeds at Minidoka Internment NM in 2003	182
Table 12: Terminology Associated with Japanese American Heritage	203

List of Historical Photographs

Page: Figures List Description:

	Photograph No. SOC341. Internees of Block 7. 1943. Special Collections Division. Courtesy of University of Washington Libraries.		10	Photograph No. 210. Kitaro and Sueko Arima dairy farm, Christopher, Washington. 1919. Permission of White River Valley Museum Photograph Collection.
Diverse Terminology			10	Instructors at the Portland Obukan. (Left to Right) Frank Tomori, Art Sasaki, Headmaster Bun-Uyemon, Senta Nii, Toru Kobayashi. ca. 1926. Courtesy of Jack Yoshihara and the Oregon Nikkei Legacy Center.
Table of Contents	Photograph No. 210-CMB-I1- Yasusuke Kogita, at left, created this garden in Block 5. Circa 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.		11	Photograph No. MOHAI 83.10.2.125. Nikkei farmers donate food to the poor at Pike Place Market, Seattle. Circa 1922. Photographer: Webster & Stevens. PEMCO Webster and Stevens Collection. Permission of Museum of History & Industry. All Rights Reserved.
Intro	Photograph No. 210-CMB-MS-1-1115a. A funeral ceremony for Minidoka's fallen soldiers. Circa 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.		11	Japan Day celebration at Shattuck School featuring Nisei students with parents and teachers. ca. 1937. Courtesy of Lilly Irinaga and the Oregon Nikkei Legacy Center.
5	"Guard Tower" and fenceline at Minidoka Relocation Center. Circa 1943. Painting by Kenjiro Nomura. Courtesy of George and Betty Nomura.		11	Photograph No. MOHAI 83.10.2.123. Nikkei stores on Jackson street in Japantown, Seattle. Circa 1919. Photographer: Webster & Stevens. PEMCO Webster and Stevens Collection. Permission of Museum of History & Industry. All Rights Reserved.
7	Photograph No. denshopd-p15-00044. Entrance to Minidoka. Circa 1944. Permission of Densho Project. Mitsuoka Collection. All Rights Reserved.		12	Damage at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii on December 7, 1941. Photograph No. 61524. Permission of Franklin Delano Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum.
Background	Photograph No. 210-CMA-E-6. "On the wall in the background of this high school classroom at the Minidoka Relocation Center is a mural depicting center life. It was done by 11th grade students." January 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.		13	Photograph No. PI28035. "Soldier posting civilian exclusion order on Bainbridge Island." 1942. Seattle Post-Intelligencer Collection. Permission of Museum of History & Industry. All Rights Reserved.
10	Photograph No. SHS13350. Emily Inez Denny and Oyshu. Seattle. Circa 1890. Photographer: Faber. Permission of Museum of History & Industry. All Rights Reserved.		13	Photograph No. PI28032. Man stacking radios surrendered by Nikkei in Seattle. December 29, 1941. Seattle Post-Intelligencer Collection. Permission of Museum of History & Industry. All Rights Reserved.
10	Jimmy's Clothes Shop with owner Maasaki Usuda. Portland Oregon. 1940. Courtesy of May Hada and the Oregon Nikkei Legacy Center.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 15 Photograph No. PI28065. "Evacuation Sale" of store inventory in the Seattle. Circa 1942. Seattle Post-Intelligencer Collection. Permission of Museum of History & Industry. All Rights Reserved. 15 Photograph No. PI28071. Sixth Avenue in Japantown, Seattle after mass removal. 1942. Seattle Post-Intelligencer Collection. Permission of Museum of History & Industry. All Rights Reserved. 15 Archival news photo of Sadji Shiogi carrying a single bag, between two G-men in dark hats and overcoats taken on December 7th, 1942. Oregonian Collection. Permission of the Oregon Historical Society. 16 Photograph No. 210-G-3B-424. Photographer: Clem Albers. "Dressed in uniform marking service in the first World War, this veteran enters Santa Anita Park assembly center for person of Japanese ancestry evacuated from the West Coast." April 5, 1942. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD. 16 Photograph No. SOC216. Internees arriving at the Puyallup Assembly Center. 1942. Special Collections Division. Courtesy of University of Washington Libraries. 16 Photograph No. PI25525. The Bailey Gatzert School in Seattle lost about 45 percent of its student body when Nikkei were removed to Minidoka and other WRA camps during World War II. Circa 1942. Seattle Post-Intelligencer Collection. Permission of Museum of History & Industry. All Rights Reserved. 17 Photograph No. OrHi28157. Portland Assembly Center located at the Pacific International Livestock Exhibition building in north Portland. July 8, 1942. Oregon Journal Collection. Permission of Oregon Historical Society. | 17 A family arrives and prepares to enter the Japanese Assembly Center with the assistance of soldiers. Pacific International Livestock Expo Building in north Portland. May 3, 1942. Permission of Oregon Historical Society. 17 Photograph 9CA-42-2806-psf. Police at Portland Assembly Center. Circa 1942. Final Report: Japanese Evacuation From the West Coast 1942. National Archives at College Park, MD. 17 Five person apartment of Reverend T. Terakawa (Buddhist priest), Hiroko Terakawa, daughter, and friend Lilian Hayashi at the Pacific International Livestock Expo Building in Portland, Oregon. May 31, 1942. Permission of Oregon Historical Society. 17 Photograph No. 1986.5.6681. "Internees lined up in the rain at Camp Harmony, Puyallup." 1942. Seattle Post-Intelligencer Collection. Permission of Museum of History & Industry. All Rights Reserved. 18 Photograph No. ft3c6003zb. Minidoka Relocation Center under construction. Photograph by Francis Stewart. August 18, 1942. Available from the Online Archive of California; http://ark.cdlib.org/ark:/13030/ft3c6003zb. Courtesy of The Bancroft Library. University of California, Berkeley 19 Photograph No. ft8489p1bn. Minidoka Relocation Center under construction. Photograph by Francis Stewart. December 10, 1942. Available from the Online Archive of California; http://ark.cdlib.org/ark:/13030/ft8489p1bn. Courtesy of The Bancroft Library. University of California, Berkeley 19 Photograph No. ft5z09n9pj. Baggage, belonging to internees who have just arrived from the assembly center at Puyallup, Washington, is sorted and trucked to barrack apartments. Photograph by Francis Stewart. August 17, 1942. Available from the Online Archive of California; http://ark.cdlib.org/ark:/ |
|--|--|

- 13030/ft5z09n9pj. Courtesy of The Bancroft Library. University of California, Berkeley
- 20 Aerial view of Minidoka Relocation Center. Circa 1943. Minidoka Interlude.
- 22 Photograph No. 1992.041.004CC. Administration area at Minidoka. Circa 1943. Permission of Wing Luke Asian Museum Photograph Collection.
- 22 Photograph No. SOC276. Minidoka post office in the administration area. Circa 1943. Permission of University of Washington.
- 22 Photograph No. 210-CMA-FCP-4. The Minidoka fire crew in front of fire station #1. March 1943. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 22 Photograph No. 1992.041.004CA. The hospital at Minidoka. June 1943. Wing Luke Asian Museum Photograph Collection.
- 23 Photograph No. 210-CMA-CS-208. "Flooded area east of Block 3." January 25, 1943. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 23 Photograph No. 210-CMB-I2-1486. Elderly Issei woman collecting coal at Minidoka. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 24 Photograph No. 210-CMA-MK-123. "An evacuee drives a heavy tractor pulling a triangle of heavy railroad irons breaking off sagebrush. This is one of the methods of clearing off land of the sagebrush adjacent to the Minidoka Relocation Center." Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 24 Photograph No. 210-CMA-FS-4. Internees collecting sagebrush at Minidoka. Circa 1943. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 24 Photograph No. 210-CMB-AGI-1099. "Establishing irrigation controls, land reclamation." June 27, 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 25 Photograph No. 210-CMB-SA2-1664. Hunt High School, located in Block 23. Circa 1945. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 25 Photograph No. 210-CMA-FS-11. Newly cleared fields at Minidoka. Circa 1943. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 25 Photograph No. 210-CMB-SA2-1677. Hunt High School gymnasium/auditorium. Circa 1945. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 26 Photograph No. SOC513. Mud from rain and melting snow at Minidoka. December 10, 1942. Special Collections Division. Courtesy of University of Washington Libraries.
- 27 Photograph No. 210-CMB-SP. Internees playing baseball at Minidoka. Circa 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 27 Photograph No. 1992.041.004.CI. Dance performance at Minidoka. Circa 1943. Permission of Wing Luke Asian Museum Photograph Collection.

- 27 Photograph No. 210-CMA-CA-10. "Girl skating on a frozen pond in the center." January 5, 1943. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 28 Photograph No. 1992.041.004.CM. Yamaguchi family in their room at Minidoka. December 1944. Permission of Wing Luke Asian Museum Photograph Collection.
- 28 Photograph No. 210-CMA-MS01. Hunt Area A, Girls 1944 Basketball Champs. 'Calmbanettes" Blocks 1,5, and 8. 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 29 Photograph No. ft458005nn. Internee George Nakashima, an architect from Seattle, constructed and decorated his model apartment. George Nakashima and his family settled in Pennsylvania and founded his furniture design studio. He is internationally renowned as one of the greatest furniture designers of the 20th century. Photograph by Francis Stewart. December 9, 1942. Available from the Online Archive of California; <http://ark.cdlib.org/ark:/13030/ft458005nn>. Courtesy of The Bancroft Library. University of California, Berkeley
- 29 Photograph No. 1992.041.004AL. Internees gardening. Circa 1943. Permission of Wing Luke Asian Museum Photograph Collection.
- 29 Photograph No. ft3r29n7wr. Students in a free-hand drawing class. Photograph by Francis Stewart. December 9, 1942. Available from the Online Archive of California; <http://ark.cdlib.org/ark:/13030/ft3r29n7wr>. Courtesy of The Bancroft Library. University of California, Berkeley
- 29 Photograph No. 210-CMA-PTA-376. "Parents assist in mending for children at the Hunt Nursery school." Circa 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 30 Photograph No. 210-CMA-CB-3. "First Communion class of Catholic Church at Minidoka Relocation Center, Hunt, Idaho. The Rev. L.H. Tibesar, Maryknoll Missionary, is pastor. The nuns are Maryknoll sisters from the Maryknoll Mission in Seattle where the Maryknoll group numbered 1000 Japanese Catholics and non-Catholics before evacuation." September 8, 1943. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 30 Photograph No. 210-CMB-EX2-1870. "Arts and crafts display." Circa 1945. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 30 Photograph No. 1992.041.004.BA. Women doing laundry in washtubs. Circa 1943. Permission of Wing Luke Asian Museum Photograph Collection.
- 31 Photograph No. 210-CMA-CG-3d. An internee working in the administration area at Minidoka. Circa 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 31 Photograph No. ft909nb52d. Interned Dr. T. Uchida, Chief Dentist, polished false teeth at Minidoka. Photograph by Francis Stewart. December 10, 1942. Available from the Online Archive of California; <http://ark.cdlib.org/ark:/13030/ft909nb52d>. Courtesy of The Bancroft Library. University of California, Berkeley
- 31 Photograph No. 210-CMA-AE-2-B. "Member of the adult education welding class using portable outfit." June 1943. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.

- 31 Photograph No. 210-CMB-11-1286. Cooperative Store. Circa 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 32 Photograph No. 210-CMA-A-2-MK-81. "Tura Nakamura, block manager of block 42-44 presents ceremonial Tai fish to Project Director, H.L. Stafford and Philip Schafer, assistant project director, on behalf of the block managers as a token of appreciation for the manner in which the administration helped to make the Army volunteering program a success." April 1943. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 33 Photograph No. 210-CMB-V1-1390. WRA suggestion box. Circa 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 33 Photograph No. ft1s2003zb. "Mitsuye Yasutake, a former internee from Minidoka, resettled to Cincinnati, Ohio to work as a cashier at the University of Cincinnati cafeteria." June 1943. Available from the Online Archive of California; <http://ark.cdlib.org/ark:/13030/ft1s2003zb/>. Courtesy of The Bancroft Library. University of California, Berkeley
- 33 Photograph No. ft2w1004gj. "Sam Kimura and Cliff Dakama, former internees from Minidoka, and Fujisada Takawa, former internee of Topaz, pile up shells at a Nebraska depot." November 11, 1944. Photographer: Takashi Sidney Aoyama. Available from the Online Archive of California; <http://ark.cdlib.org/ark:/13030/ft2w1004gj>. Courtesy of The Bancroft Library. University of California, Berkeley
- 34 Photograph No. 210-CMB-12-1484. Relocating from Minidoka. Circa 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 34 Photograph No. 210-G-16B-973. "A Minidoka Relocation Center evacuee and an evacuee being transferred to the Tule Lake Center grasp hands in a final farewell as the train carrying the 254 evacuees to the Tule Lake Center prepares to leave." September 5, 1943. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 34 Photograph No. 210-G-16B-975. "High school teachers assist arriving evacuees from the Tule Lake Relocation Center." September 5, 1943. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 35 Photograph No. 210-CMB-1453. WRA staff honor roll. Circa 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 35 Photograph No. 210-CMA-A-18. Hatoshi Kanzaki, a soldier in the U.S. military, visits his parents at the Minidoka Relocation Center. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 36 Photograph No. 210-G-15E-738. "Navy students in the Japanese Language school at the University of Colorado learn to write by dictation. Language instructor Grayce Nakasonke (sp) corrects blackboard writing as she dictates Japanese passages. Grayce, a former Los Angeles college student spent several weeks at a War Relocation Center after evacuation from the West Coast defense area." April 22, 1943. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 36 Photograph No. 210-G-15H-46. Photographer: Chase E. Mace. "Hand grenade drill. A company of Japanese-American soldiers are here shown throwing hand grenades into an open trench. The 442nd combat team at Camp Shelby is composed entirely of Americans of Japanese descent who - volunteered for service in the armed forces. This unit of approximately 8000 men is undergoing intensive training in all branches of combat duty, and they are looking forward with eagerness to actual services at the front." July 1945. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.

- 36 Photograph No. 210-CMB-F4-1543. Buddhist funeral service for a fallen Minidoka soldier. Circa 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 36 Photograph No. 210-CMB-F4-1475. Christian funeral service for a fallen Minidoka soldier. Circa 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 36 "Sogoro Yamasaki, 75, born in Japan but an Oregonian for nearly 50 years, is extremely proud of his three sons, all Purple Heart veterans." November 30, 1946. Oregonian Collection. Permission of Oregon Historical Society.
- 37 Photograph No. 210-CMB-i1-1251. Minidoka honor roll. Circa 1943. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 38 Photograph No. PI28290. Crowds at Fourth and Pike on V-J Day, Seattle. August 14, 1945. Seattle Post-Intelligencer Collection. Permission of Museum of History & Industry. All Rights Reserved.
- 38 "The Sign Shop." The man in the painting is printing the names on the Minidoka Honor Roll. Kenjiro Nomura. 1943. Courtesy of George and Betty Nomura.
- 39 Photograph No. 1498. Oregon House Joint Memorial Number 9 requesting that Nikkei be lawfully prevented from returning to the west coast during the war with Japan. February 28, 1945. Permission of Oregon Historical Society.
- 39 Photograph No. PI28084. Vandalism on Nikkei home in Seattle. 1945. Seattle Post-Intelligencer Collection. Permission of Museum of History & Industry. All Rights Reserved.
- 40 Photograph No. 210-G_17S-104. "Tacoma Buddhist Church, Tacoma, Washington. View showing the results of pilferage of evacuee property originally stored in the Tacoma Buddhist Church. Shows isle way full of pilfered belongings from unidentified trunks and chests. This view is strictly in back of the first view of trunks seen in S-103, and at right angles to View No. 1, showing the length of the stock of goods on, or the width of the basement when stored." 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 40 Photograph No. 210-G-17S-9. "Portland, Oregon. Vandalism in the Japanese Cemetery." 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 41 Photograph No. 210-G-16K-507. "Japanese repatriates embarking for Japan." November 24, 1945. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 41 Photograph No. 210-G-16K-510. "Japanese repatriates embarking for Japan." November 24, 1945. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 41 Photograph No. 210-G-151-895. Photographer Hikaru Iwasaki. "With the return of the Terumatsu Yabuki to his greenhouse property at Hunt's point near Bellevue, Washington on May 17, 1945, from Minidoka, the Yabuki

- family is again reunited on the home place. Left to right: Terumatsu Yabuki; Mother Yabuki; Pfc. Kiyoshi Yabuki and Hideo Yabuki. Kiyoshi, a veteran, returned to the United States last Christmas Day from Italy and France.” May 17, 1945. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 42 Photograph No. 210-CMA-54-3. “Staff Housing.” Circa 1943. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 43 These World War II veterans won land lotteries at the former Minidoka Relocation Center site. With the land, they also received surplus materials from the Minidoka Relocation Center. Circa 1947. Photograph taken by Bureau of Reclamation staff. NPS Photo.
- 43 These World War II veterans won land lotteries at the former Minidoka Relocation Center site. With the land, they also received surplus materials from the Minidoka Relocation Center. Circa 1947. Photograph taken by Bureau of Reclamation staff. NPS Photo.
- 43 Moving a staff housing building to its new site in the warehouse area. Circa 1946. Photograph taken by Bureau of Reclamation staff. NPS Photo.
- 44 A Farm-in-a-Day project advertisement for the Herrmann family farm which ran in the North Side News. The Herrmann farm is located on the site of the former water tower #1, fire station, sewage treatment plant, Blocks 21 and 22, and portions of adjacent blocks. USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service (formerly Soil Conservation Service), April 17, 1952.
- 46 President Reagan signs HR 442 (Civil Liberties Act) into law in White House ceremony, August 10, 1988. From left to right: Sen. Masayuki “Spark” Matsunaga (D-HI), Rep. Norman Y. Mineta (D-CA), Rep. Pat Saiki (R-HI), Sen. Pete Wilson (R-CA), Rep. Don Young (R-AK), Rep. Robert T. Matsui (D-CA), Rep. Bill Lowery (R-CA) and Harry Kajihara, President of the Japanese American Citizens League. Permission of Smithsonian Museum.
- 50 “Barracks and Recreational Hall.” Painting by Kenjiro Nomura. 1942-1945. Courtesy of George and Betty Nomura.
- 50 Photograph No. 210-CMA-A-22. “Mothers of boys killed during World War II being honored on Mother’s Day in Twin Falls.” Circa 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 51 Sgt. Kay (Keisaaburo) Niguma. Circa 1945. Courtesy of Rose Niguma and the Oregon Nikkei Legacy Center.
- 51 Chikano Niguma. Circa 1945. Courtesy of Rose Niguma and the Oregon Nikkei Legacy Center.
- 52 Photograph No. 210-CC-IN-4. “Door of barber shop owned by Andy Hale, in a little desert town of Parker, 15 miles from where is located the Colorado River Relocation Center. Evacuees from the center, who cannot leave its confines without a pass, are discouraged from shopping in Parker, by WRA officials.” Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 53 Painting by Fumio Hanaguchi, Minidoka internee. Circa 1943. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 67 Photograph No. SOC506. Mrs. Eizo Nishi in her improved barrack room. December 9, 1942. Photographer: Francis Stewart. Special Collections Division. Courtesy of University of Washington Libraries.

- 68 Photograph No. 210-CMB-I1-1274. Internees line up for food in the mess hall. Circa 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD
- 72 Photograph No. 210-CMB-CH1-1753. Buddhist funeral ceremony for fallen Minidoka soldiers. Circa 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 103 Photograph No. 210-CMB-EX1-1049. Paper flowers made by internees. Circa 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 112 Photograph No. 210-CMB-V1-1252. Mrs. Onodera. Her sons, Ko, Kaun, and Satoru were serving in the military. Satoru died in combat in Italy on July 5, 1944. Circa 1944. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.
- 152 Swimming hole #1 at Minidoka. Circa 1943. Minidoka Interlude.
- 154 Photograph No. 210-CMB-I2-1306. The entrance at Minidoka. Circa 1943. National Archives. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 159 Photograph No. LC-USF34- 073832-D. Japanese American farm labor camp at Rupert, Idaho administered by the Farm Security Administration. The camp was a civilian conservation corps camp before World War II. July 1942. Photographer: Lee Russell. Farm Security Administration - Office of War Information Photograph Collection. Permission of Library of Congress Prints & Photographs Division Washington.
- 164 The Merchant Building. Portland Oregon. ca. 1938. Permission of the Oregon Historical Society.
- 188 Photograph No. 210-CMA-FS-38. "Brush fire midsection of camp." 1945. Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, MD.
- 210 Photograph No. 210-CMB-AG1-1120. "Planting celery." Records of the War Relocation Authority, Record Group 210; National Archives at College Park, College Park, MD.

PVT. JOHN RYOJI KAWAGUCHI
PVT. TOMOYUKI KIKUCHI
SSGT. FRANCIS TSUKASA KINOSHITA
PVT. JOHN HIROSHI KYONO
PFC. WILLIAM KENZO NAKAMURA
PVT. SATORU ONODERA
SGT. GEORGE SAWADA
SGT. TAMI TAKEMOTO
MATSUSABURO TANAKA