

VICINITY PLAN

SITE PLAN

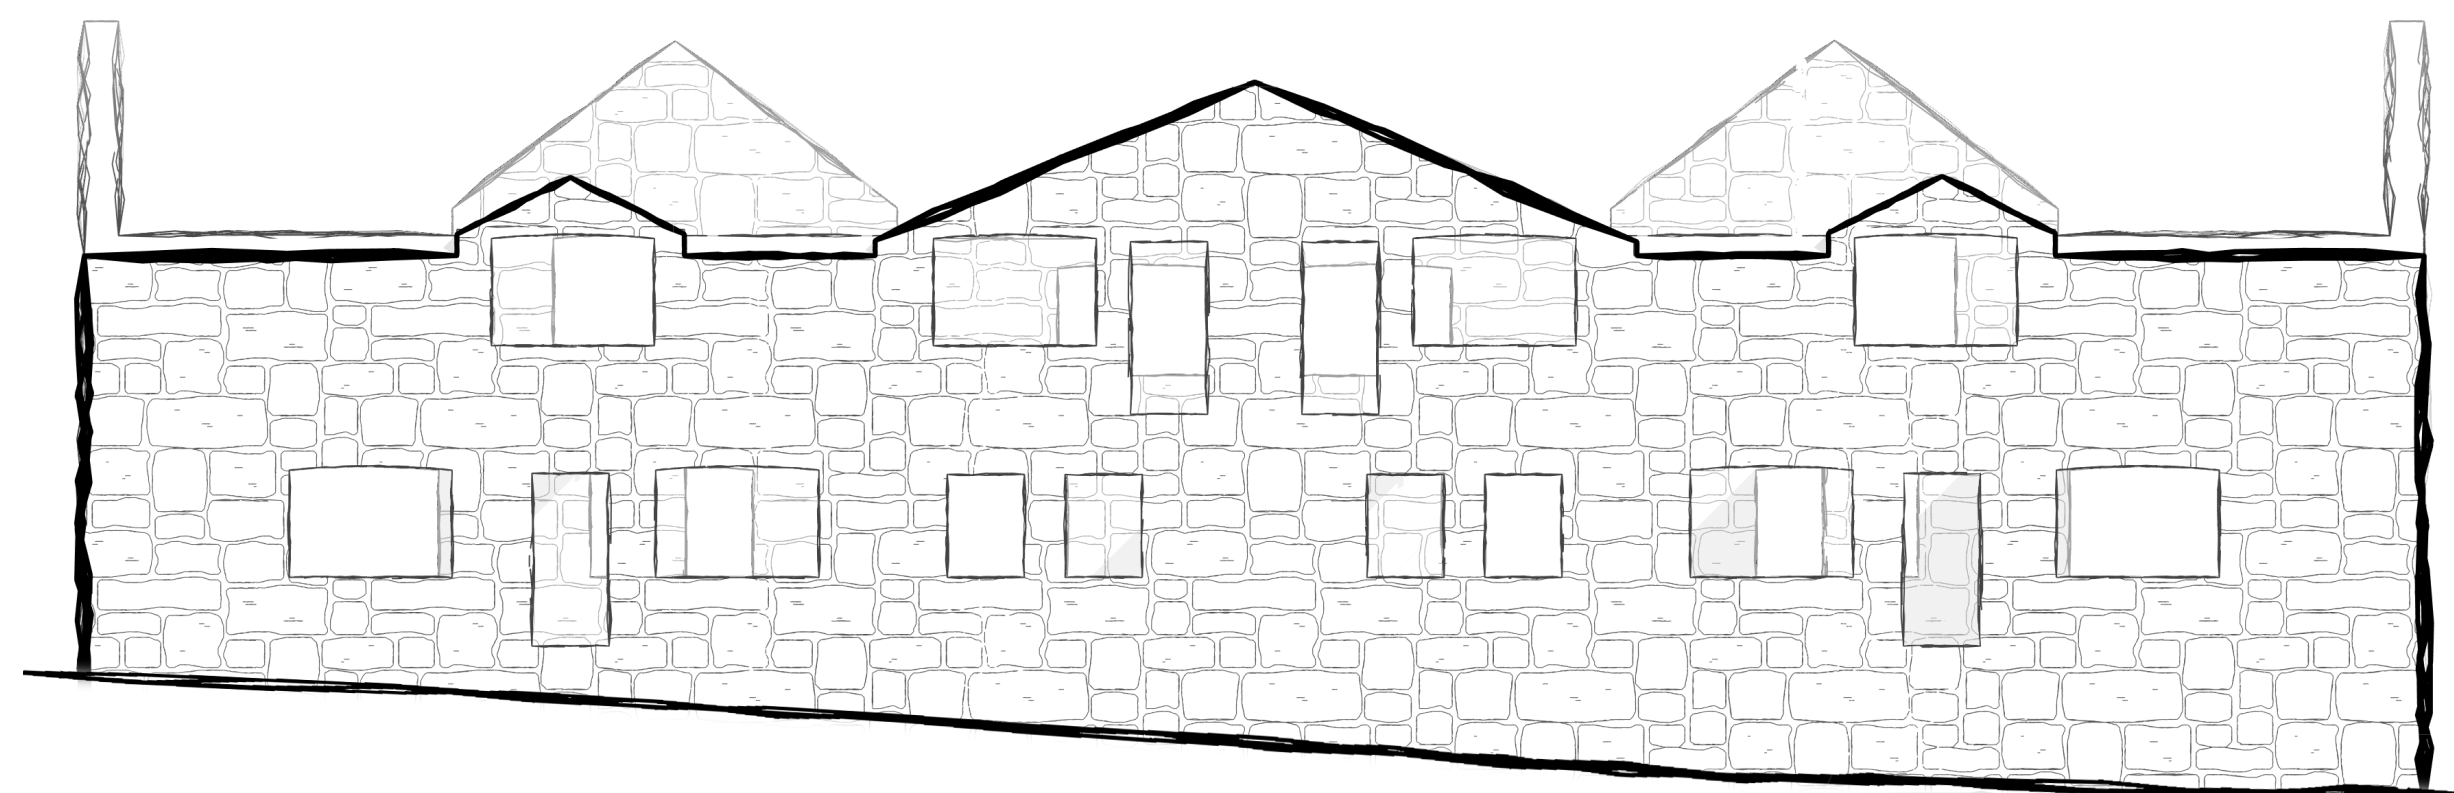

SPERRY CHALET

SITE ANALYSIS

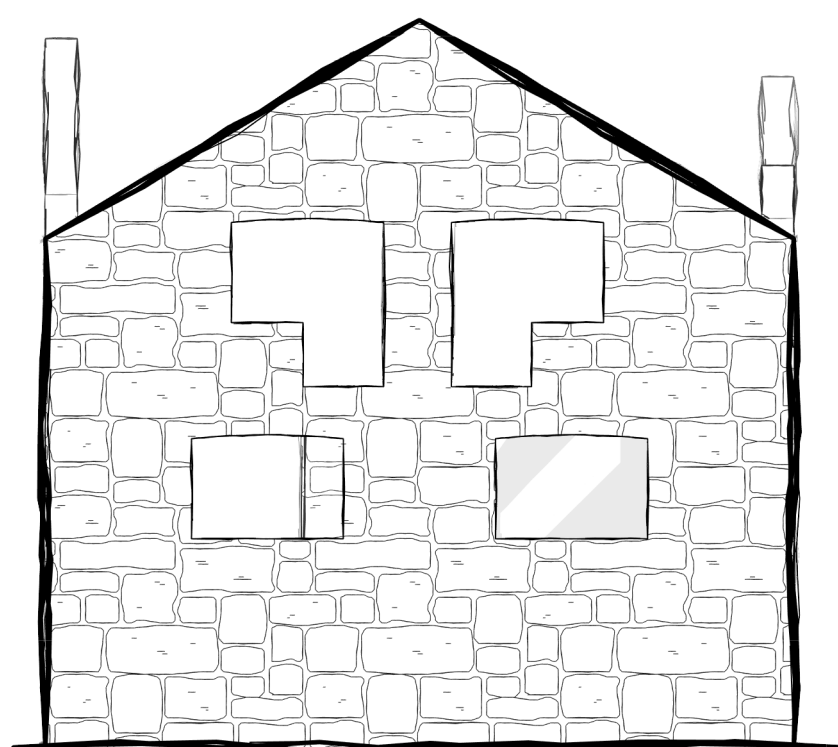

GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

Anderson
Hallas
Architects

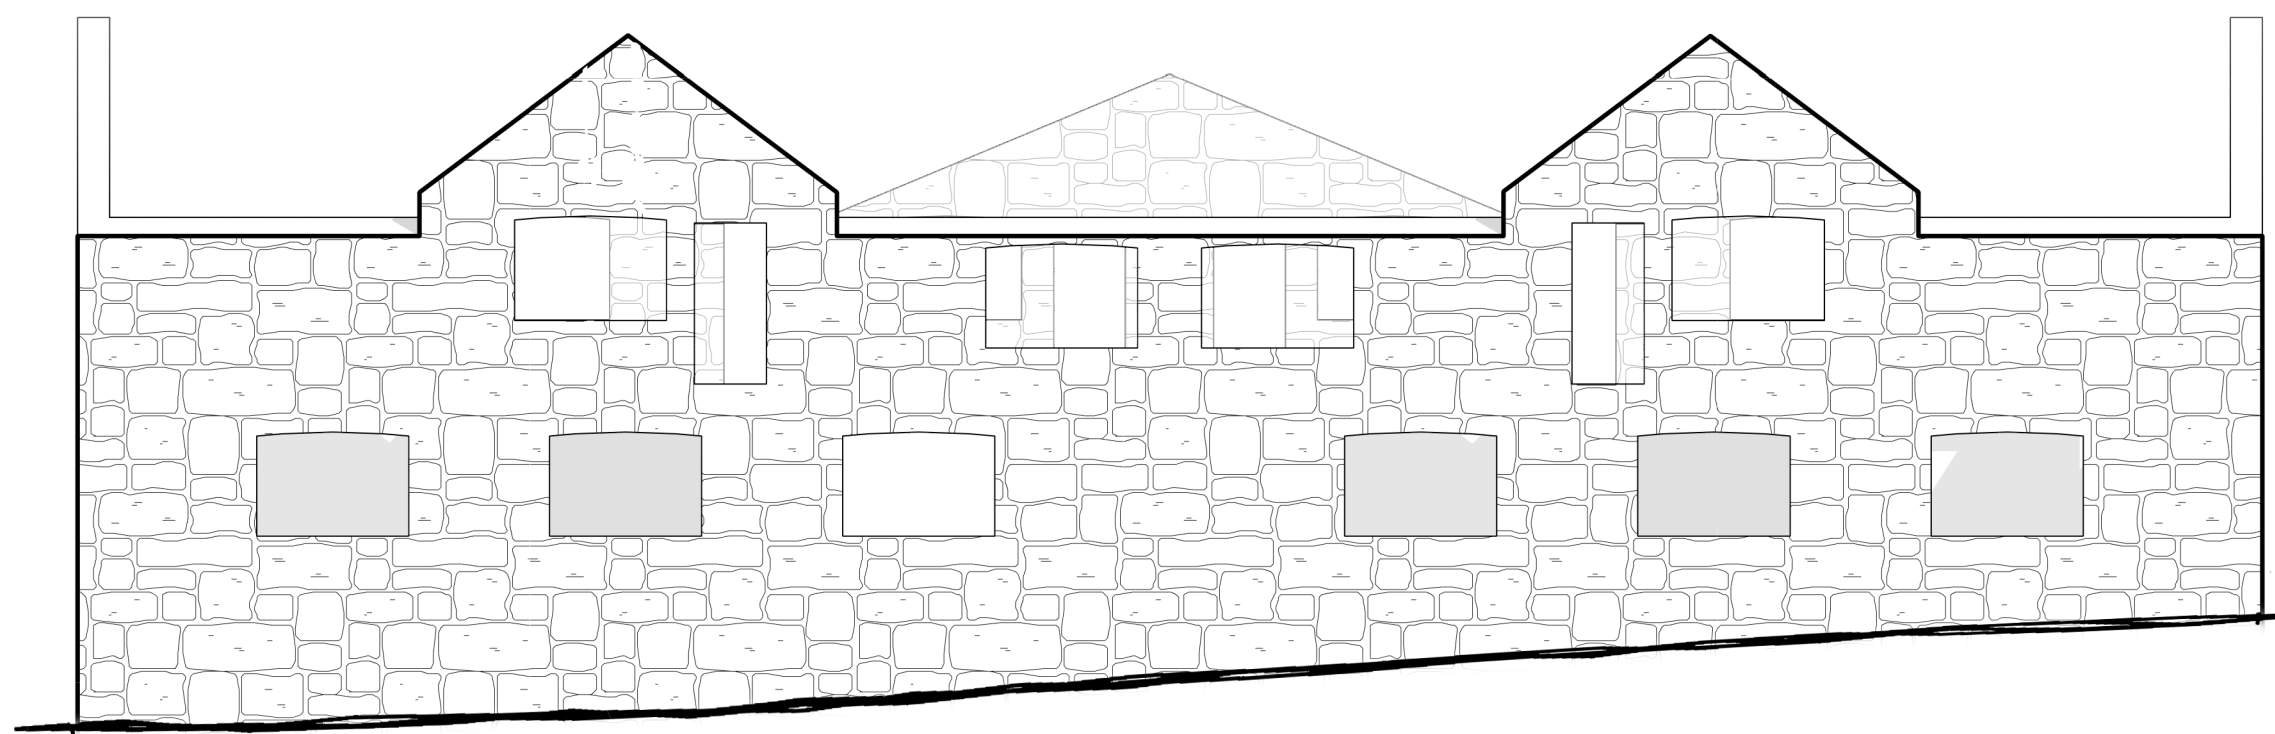

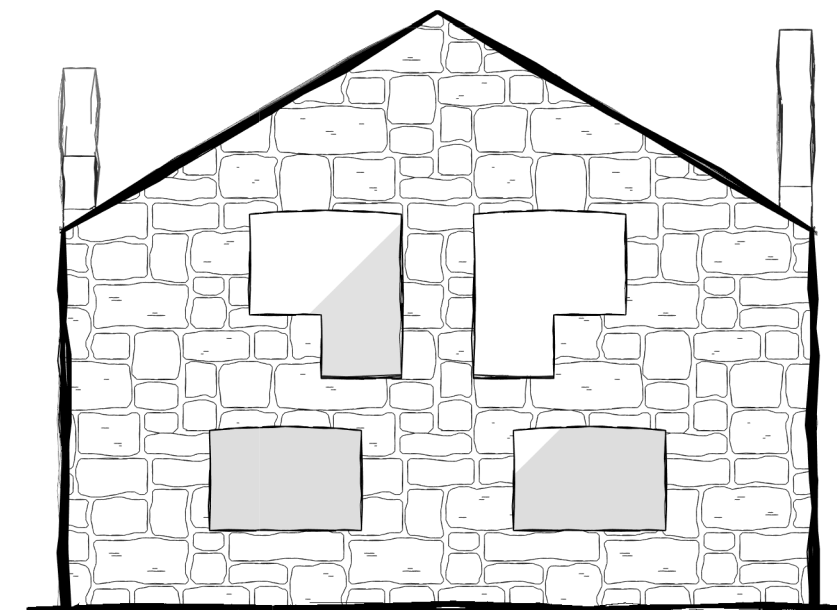

WEST ELEVATION

SOUTH ELEVATION

EAST ELEVATION

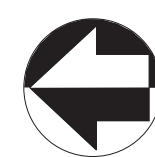

NORTH ELEVATION

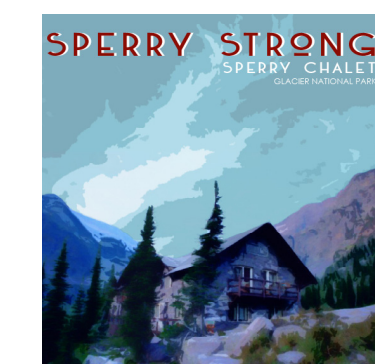

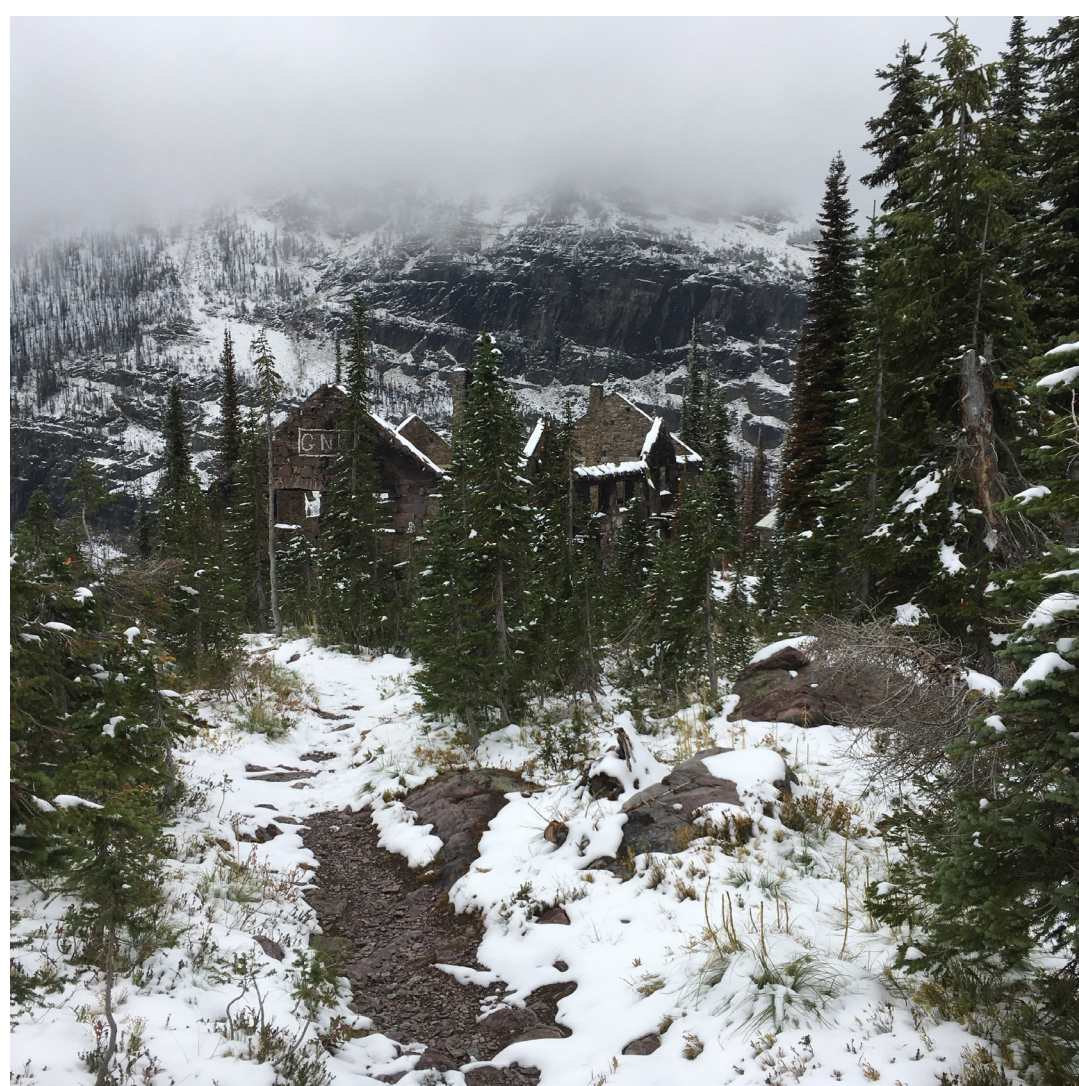

FIRST FLOOR PLAN

SCALE OF FEET

Ruin Stabilization Notes: Remove all debris, stabilize masonry, reduce height of chimneys to a safe level, provide viewing platform into ruin.

SPERRY CHALET

NO ACTION

GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

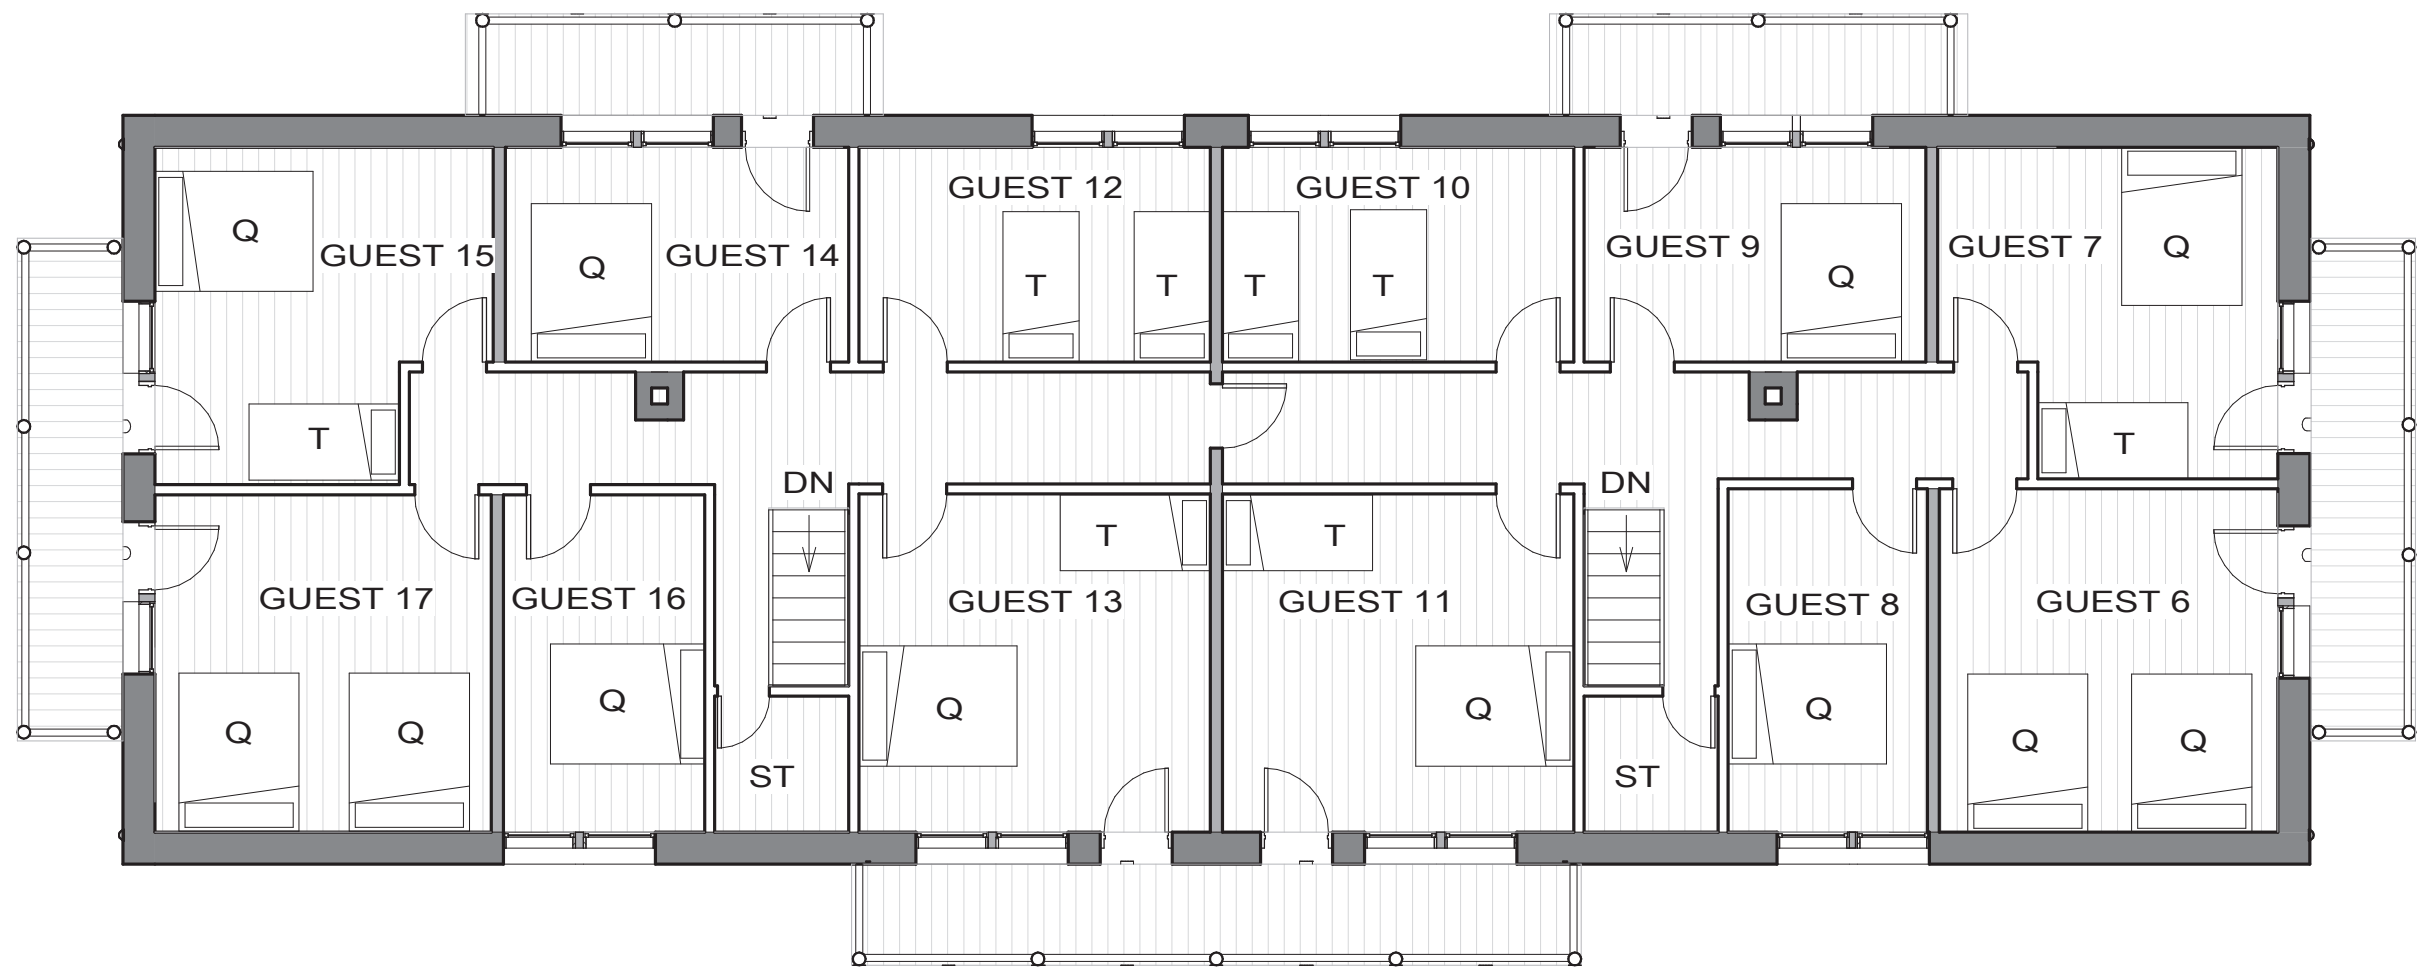

Anderson
Hallas
Architects

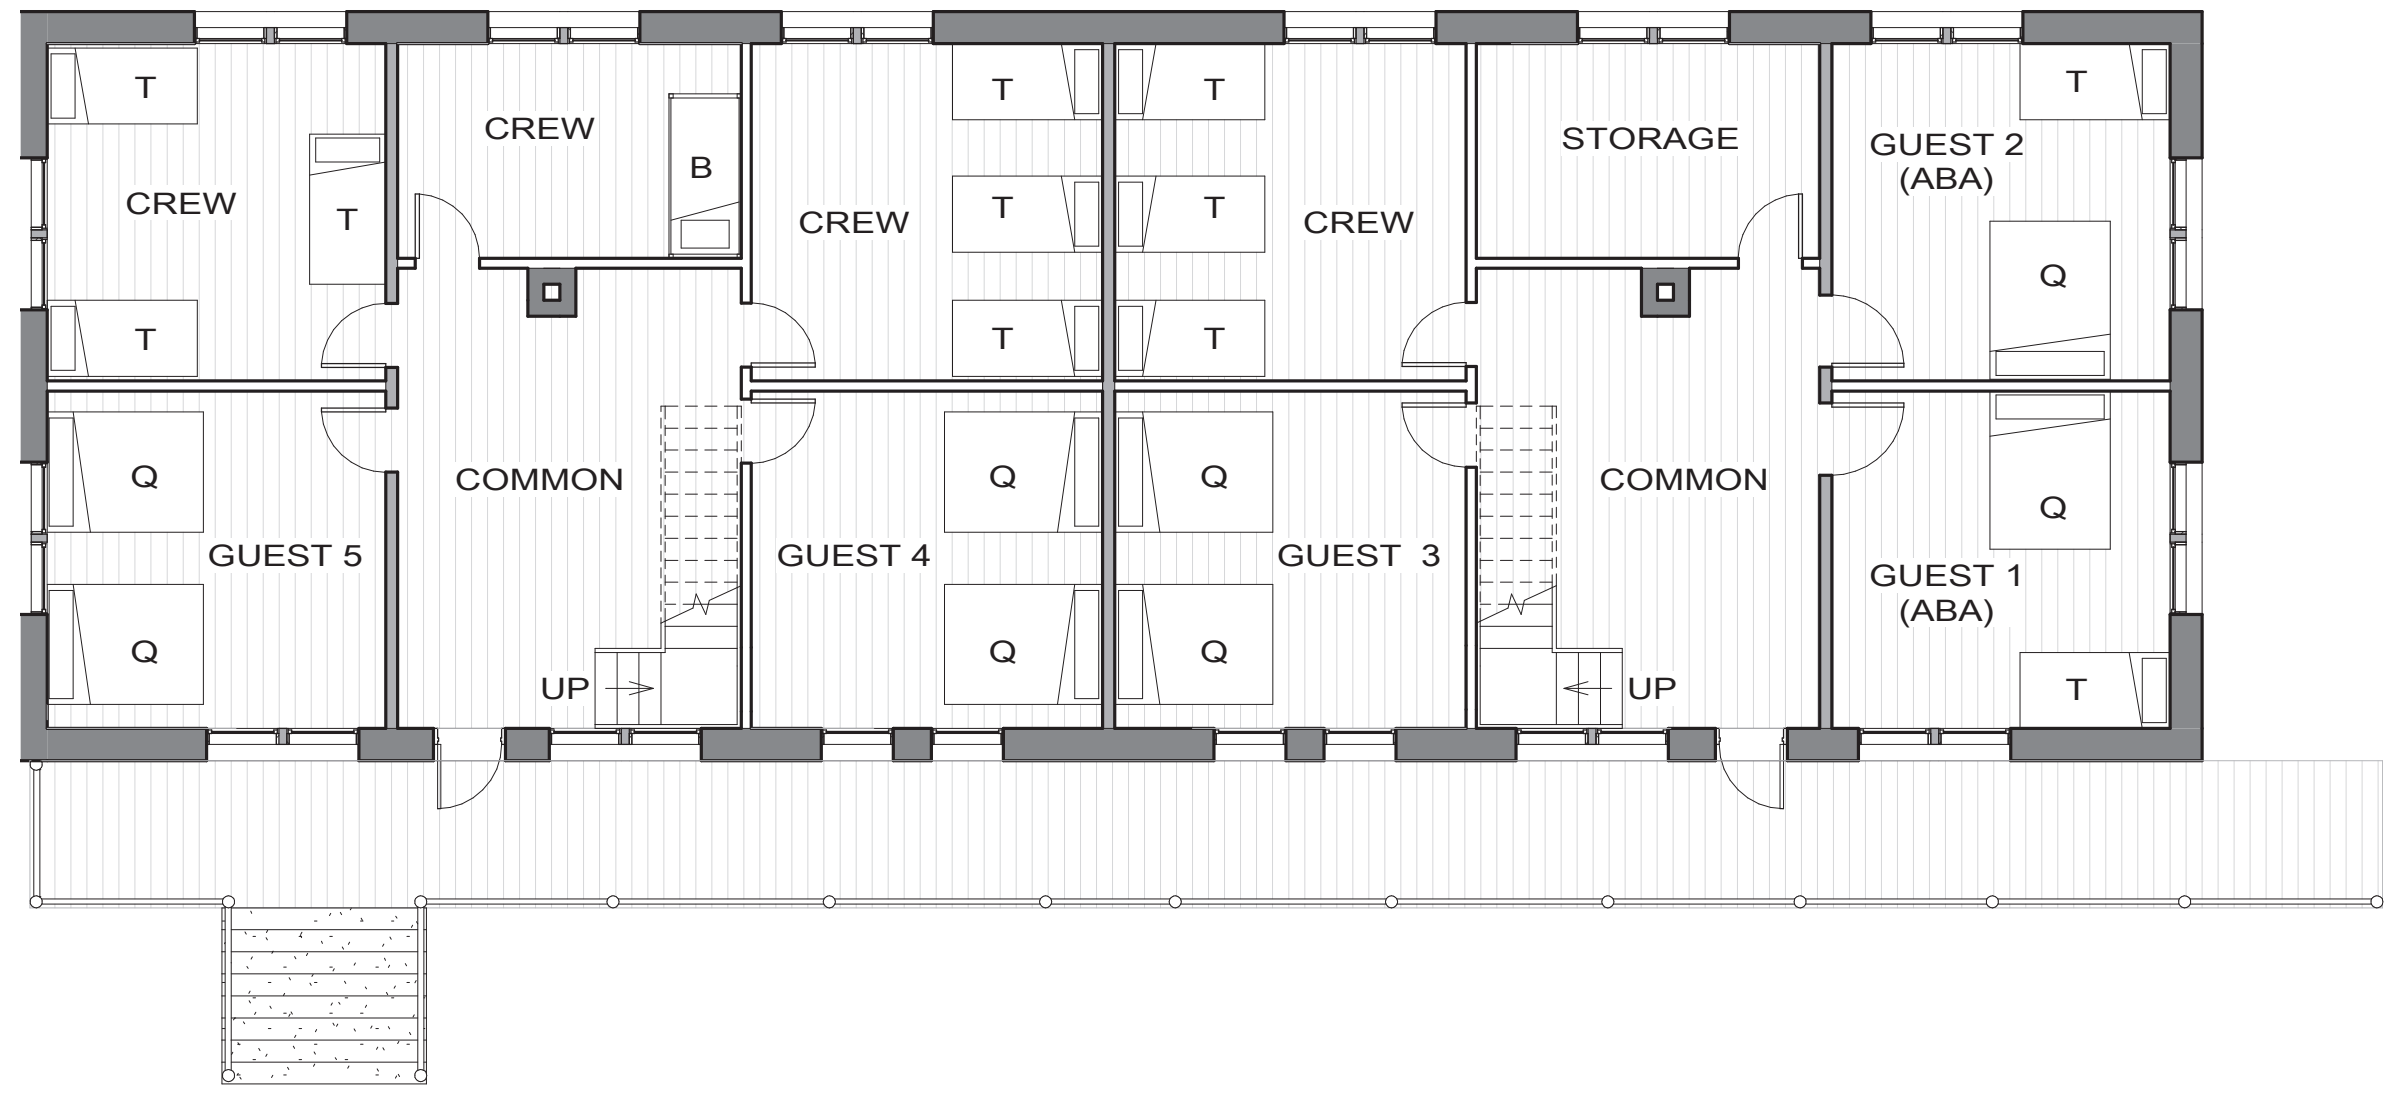

SITE PLAN

Concept 1: Rebuild the dormitory "as close to as it was," reflecting its period of significance but providing updates to improve life safety and meet current codes. Provide seismic upgrades, provide code-compliant stairs, and accommodate accessibility.

SECOND FLOOR PLAN

FIRST FLOOR PLAN

SPERRY CHALET

CONCEPT # 1 |

GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

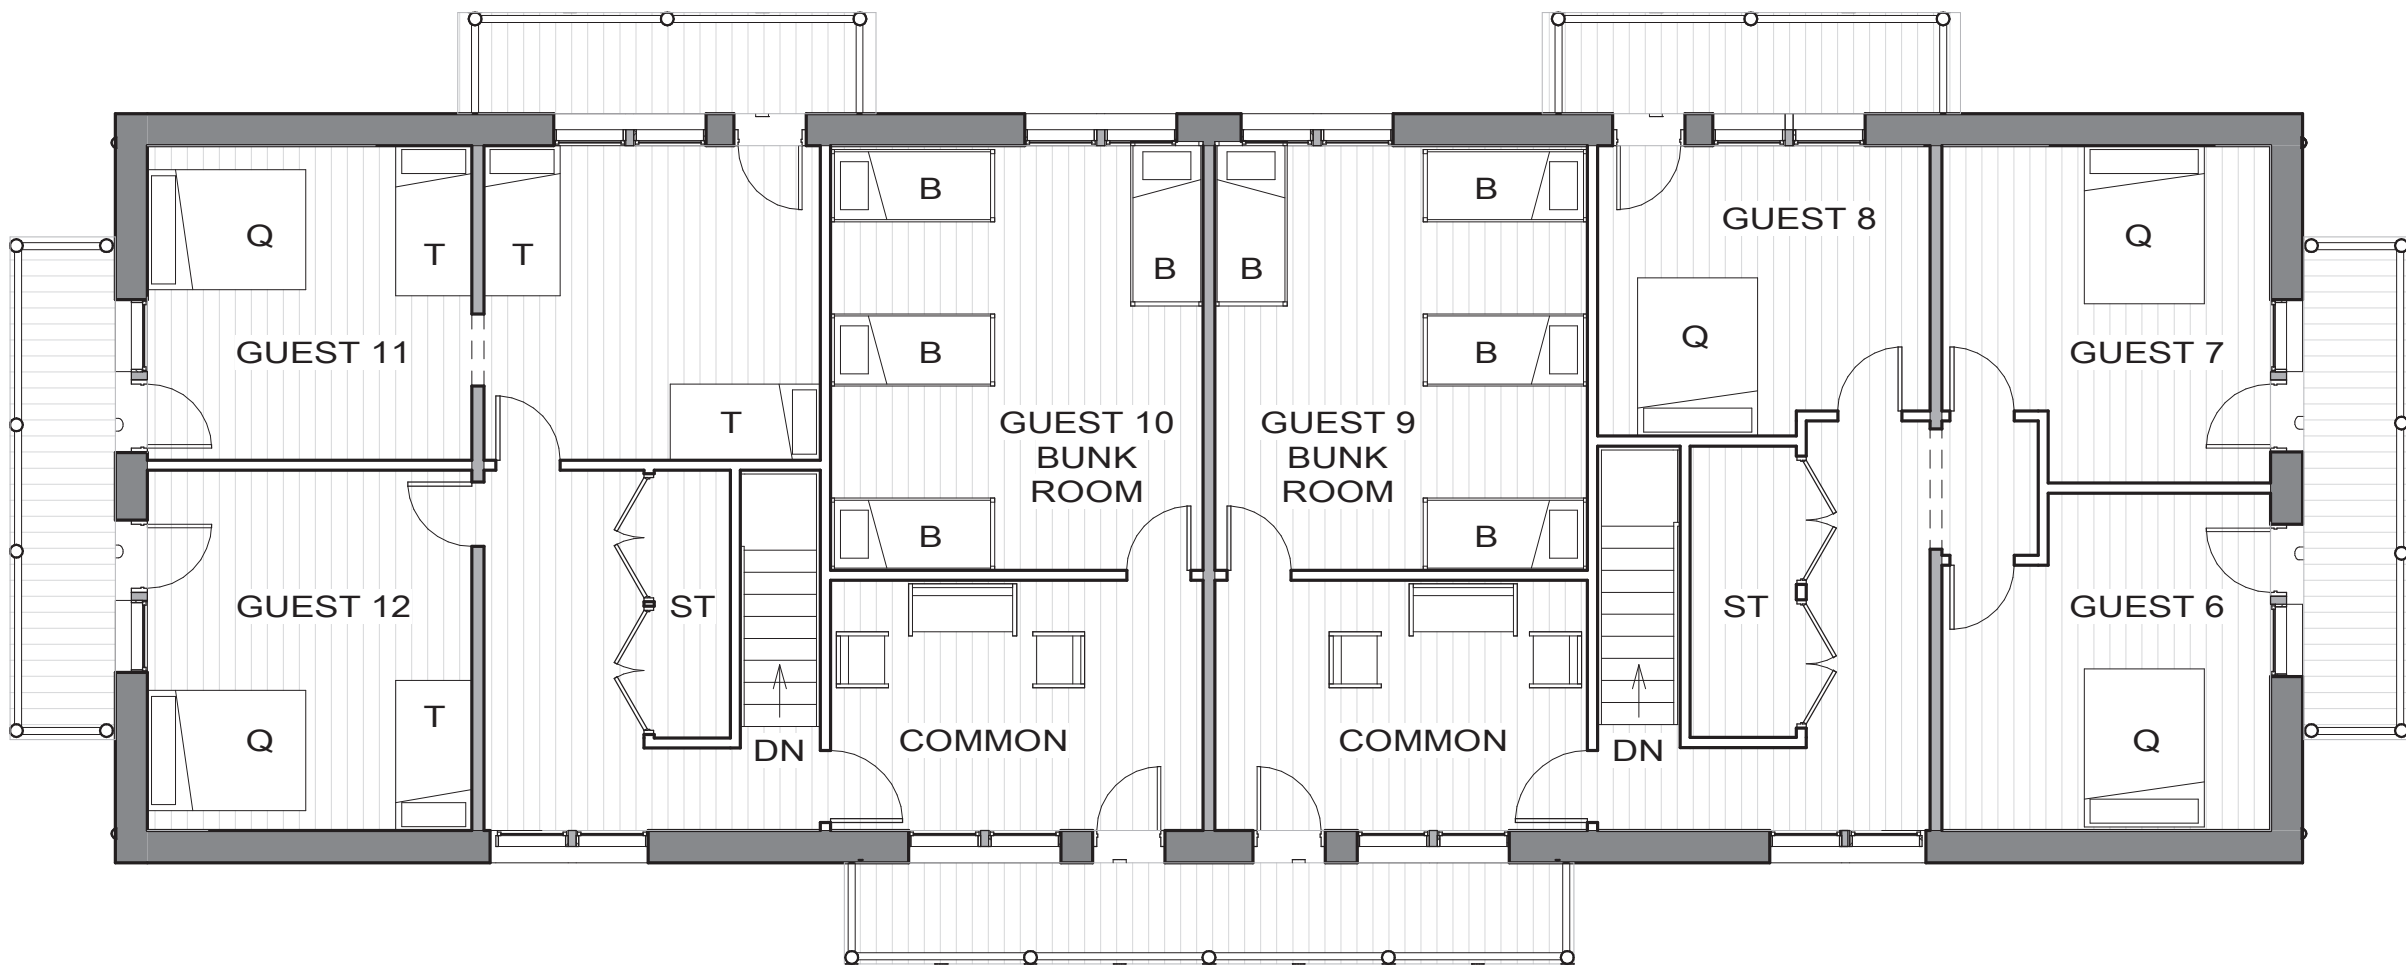

Anderson
Hallas
Architects

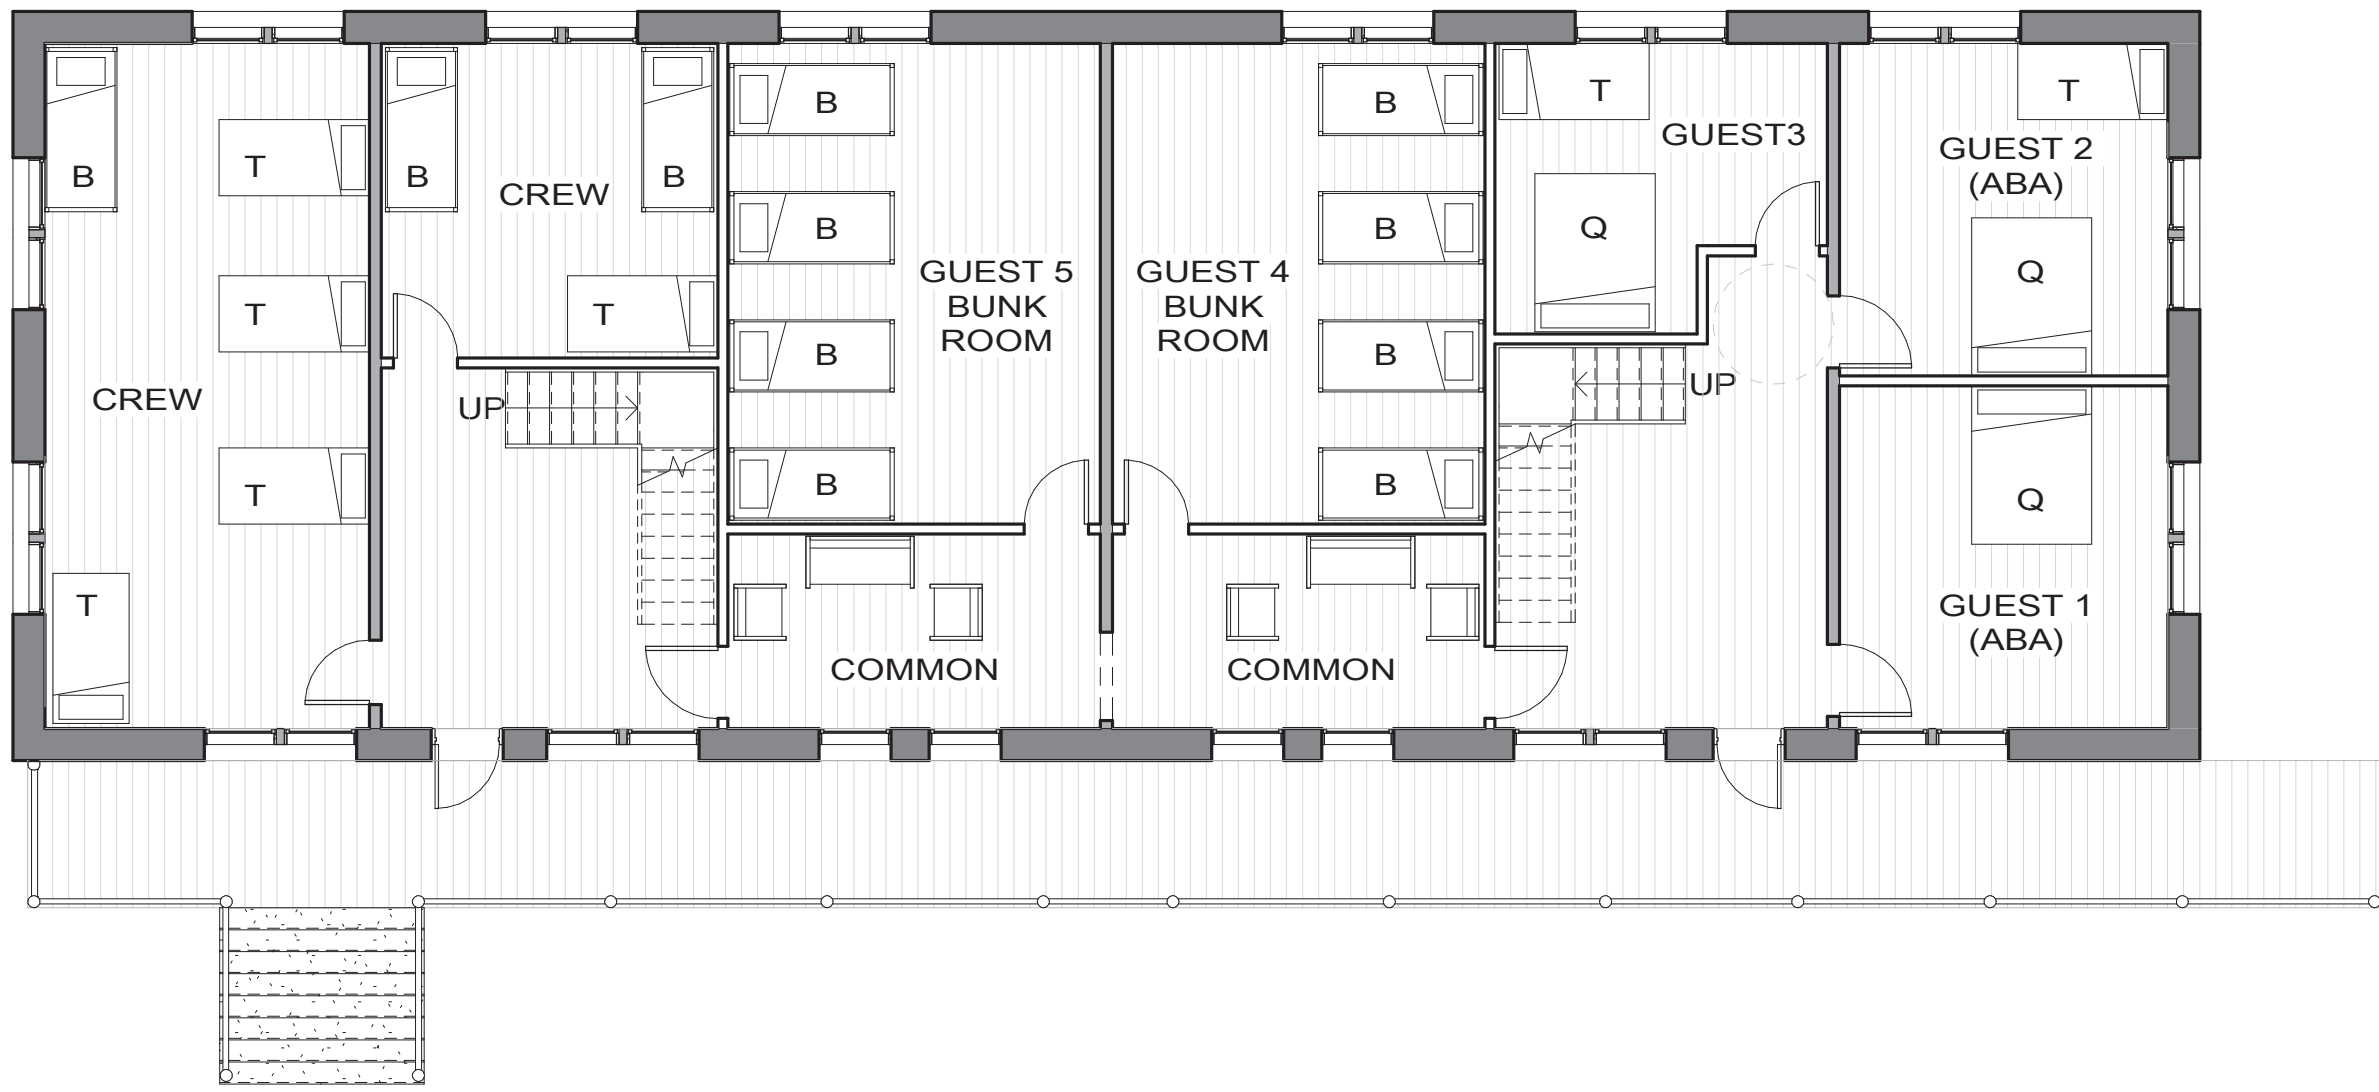

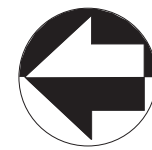

SITE PLAN

Concept 2: Rebuild the dormitory "in place but modernized," keeping the stone exterior walls but modifying the interior layout to update the visitor experience and meet current codes. Provide seismic upgrades, provide code-compliant stairs, and accommodate accessibility.

SECOND FLOOR PLAN

FIRST FLOOR PLAN

SPERRY CHALET

CONCEPT # 2 |

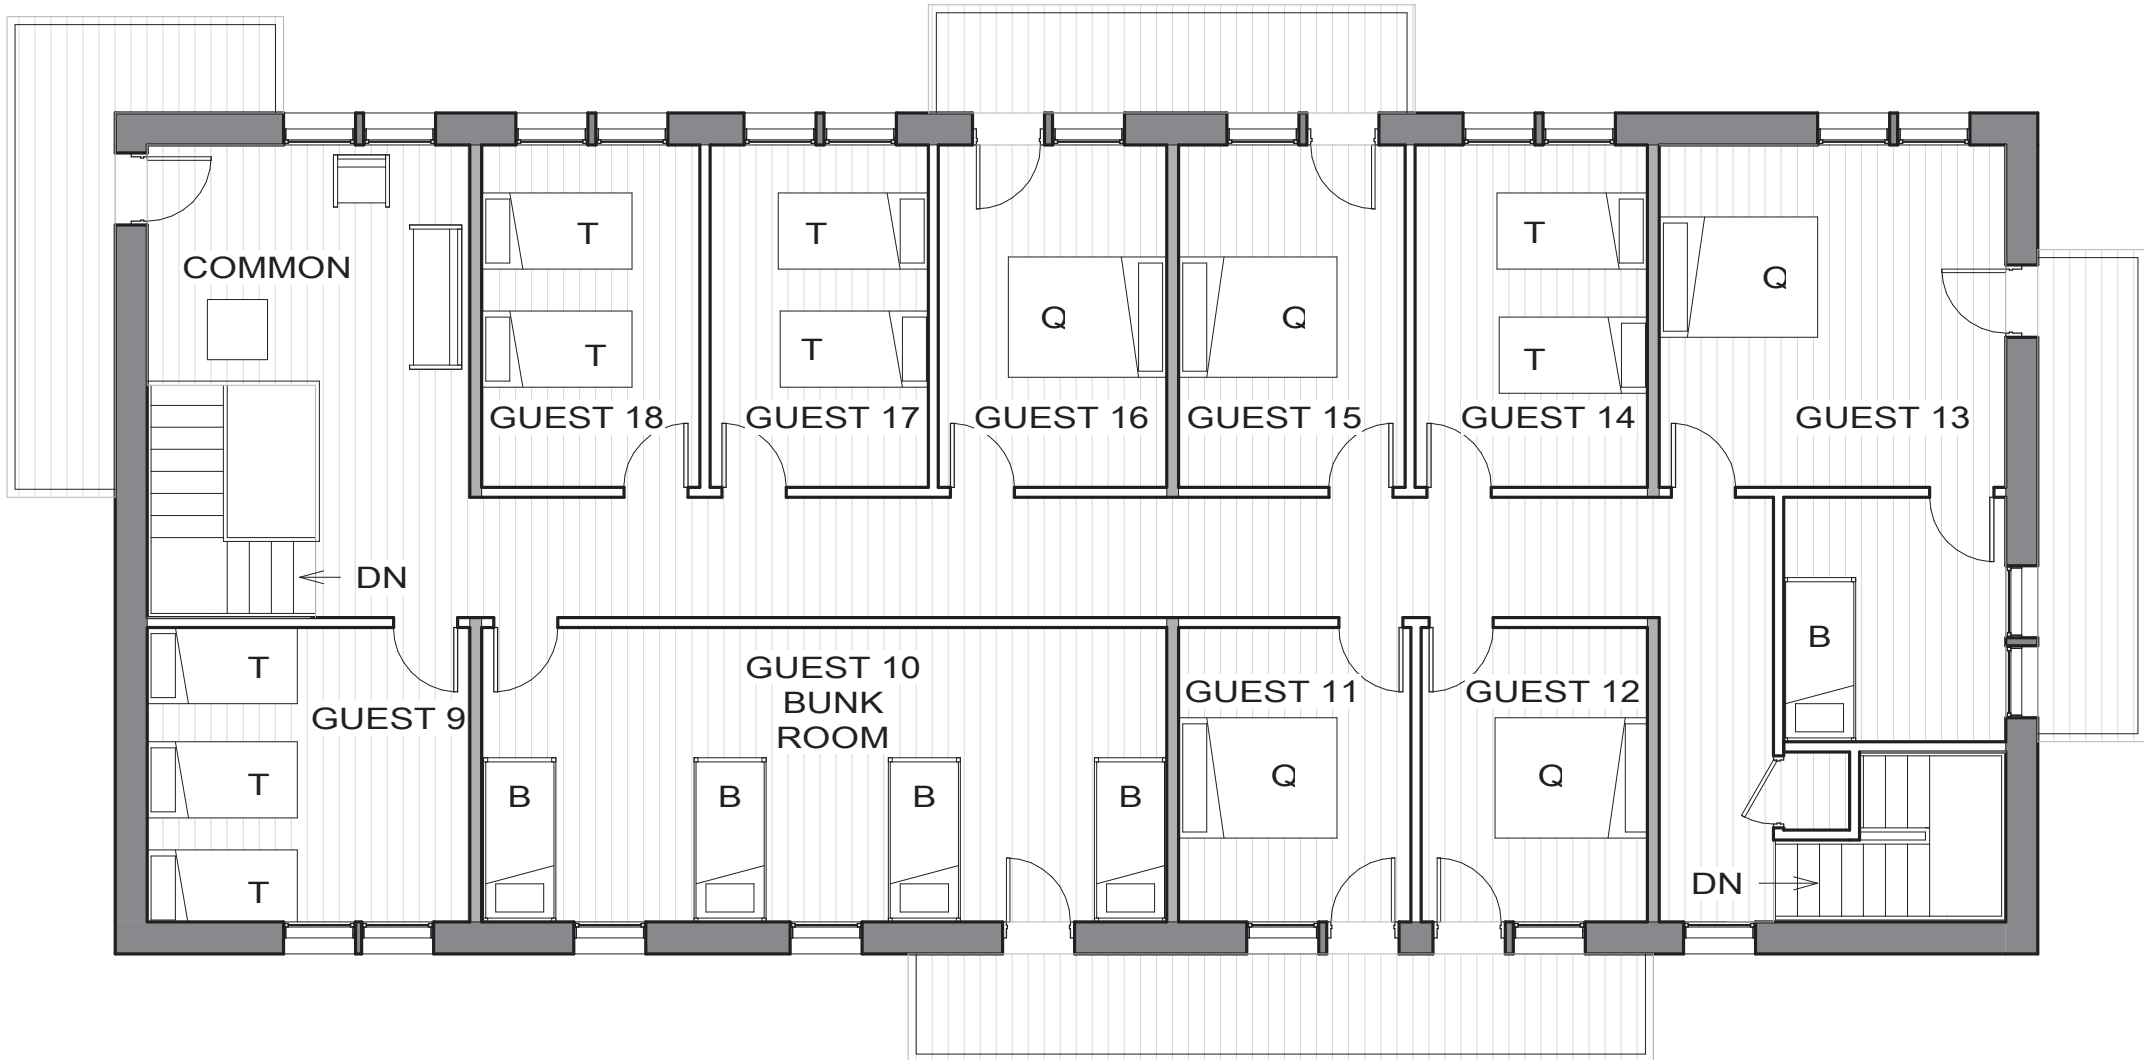

GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

Anderson
Hallas
Architects

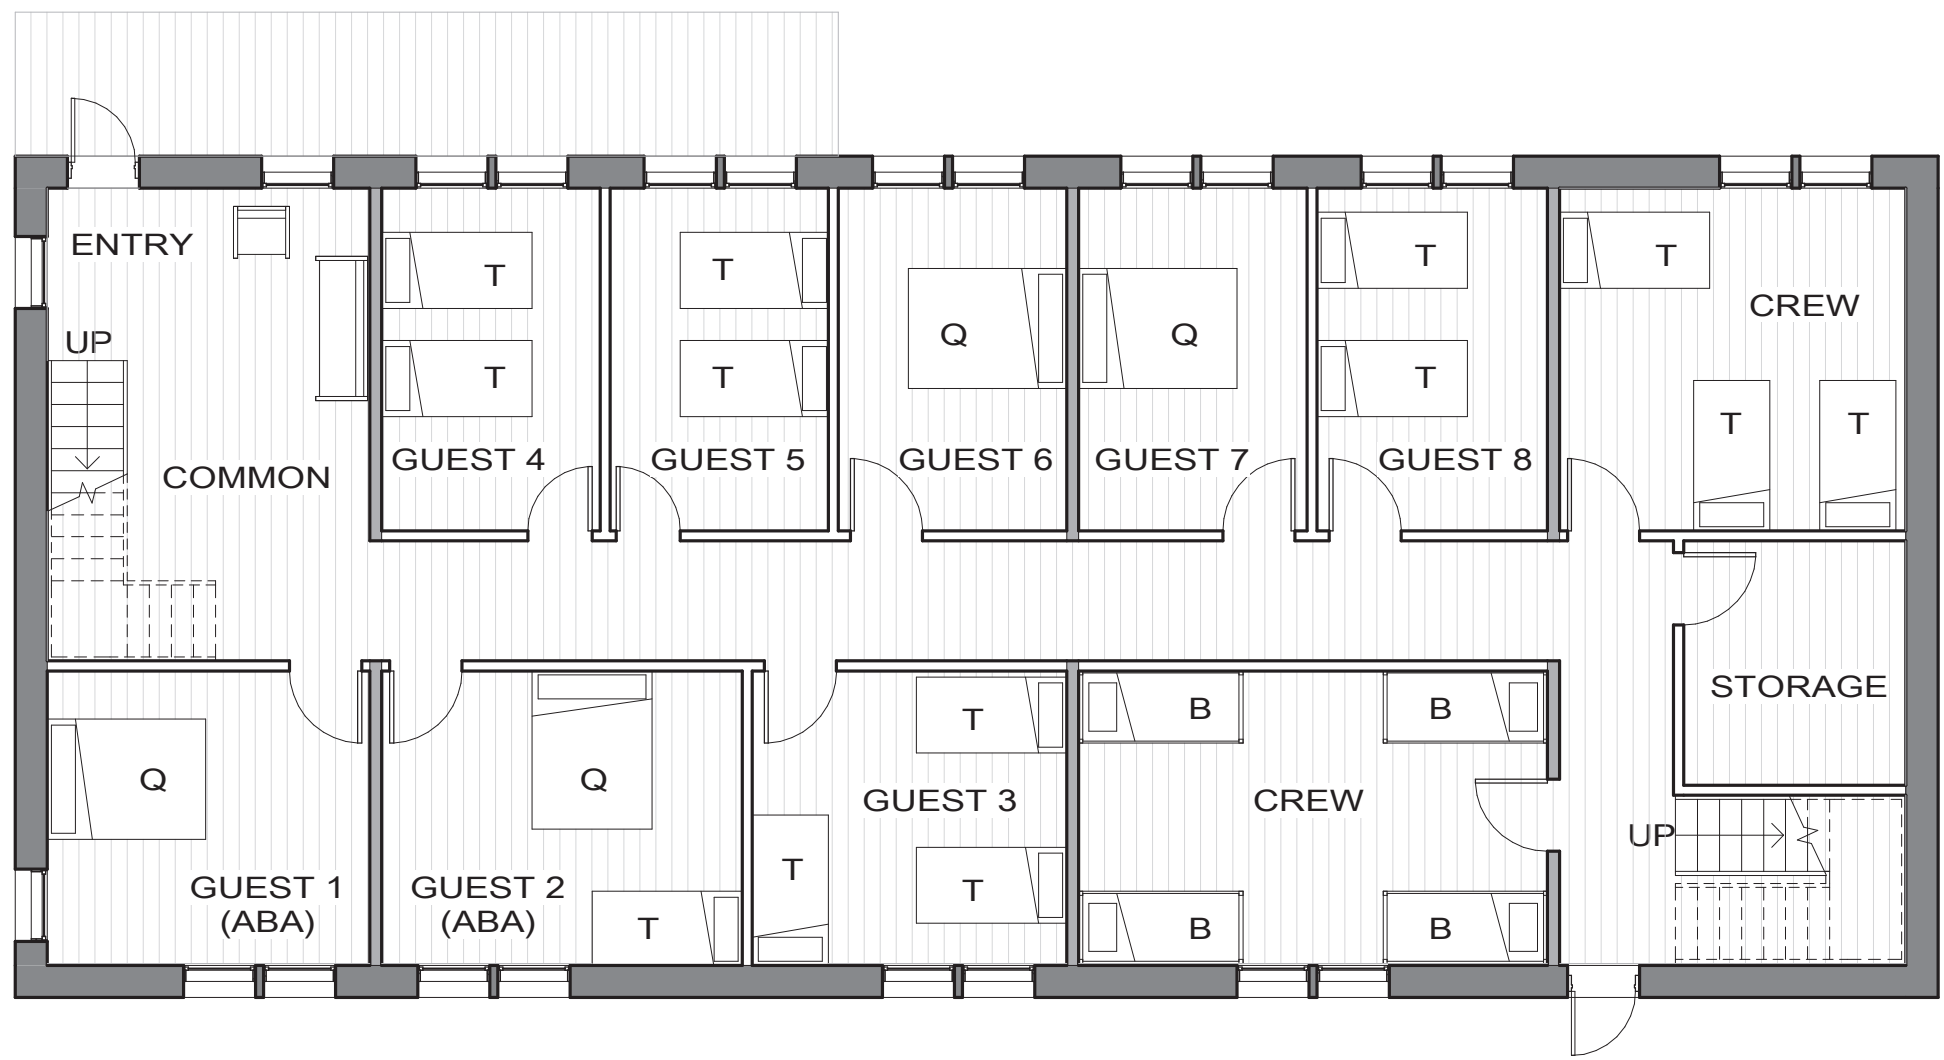

Concept 3: Construct an entirely new structure, complementary to the historic landscape, at a slightly different location; historic walls would be stabilized for visitor interpretation. See “No Action” for ruin stabilization.

SECOND FLOOR PLAN

FIRST FLOOR PLAN

SPERRY CHALET

CONCEPT # 3 |

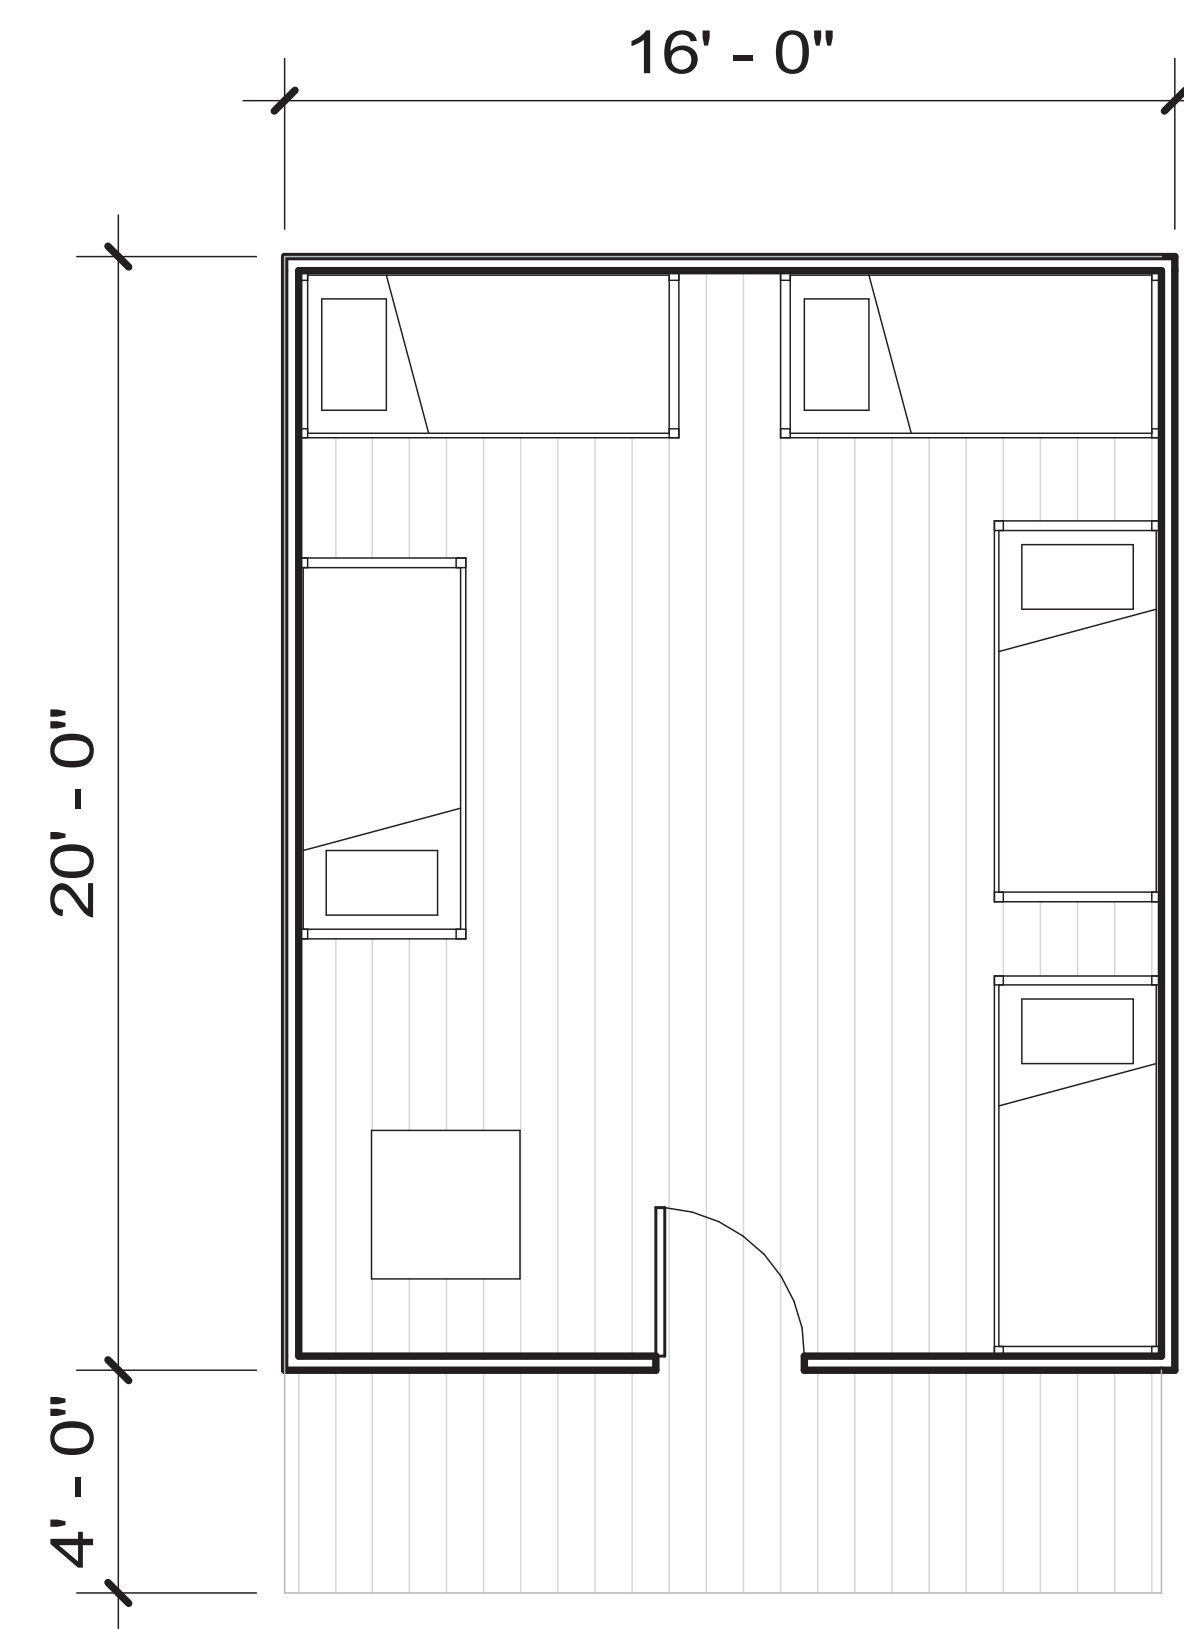

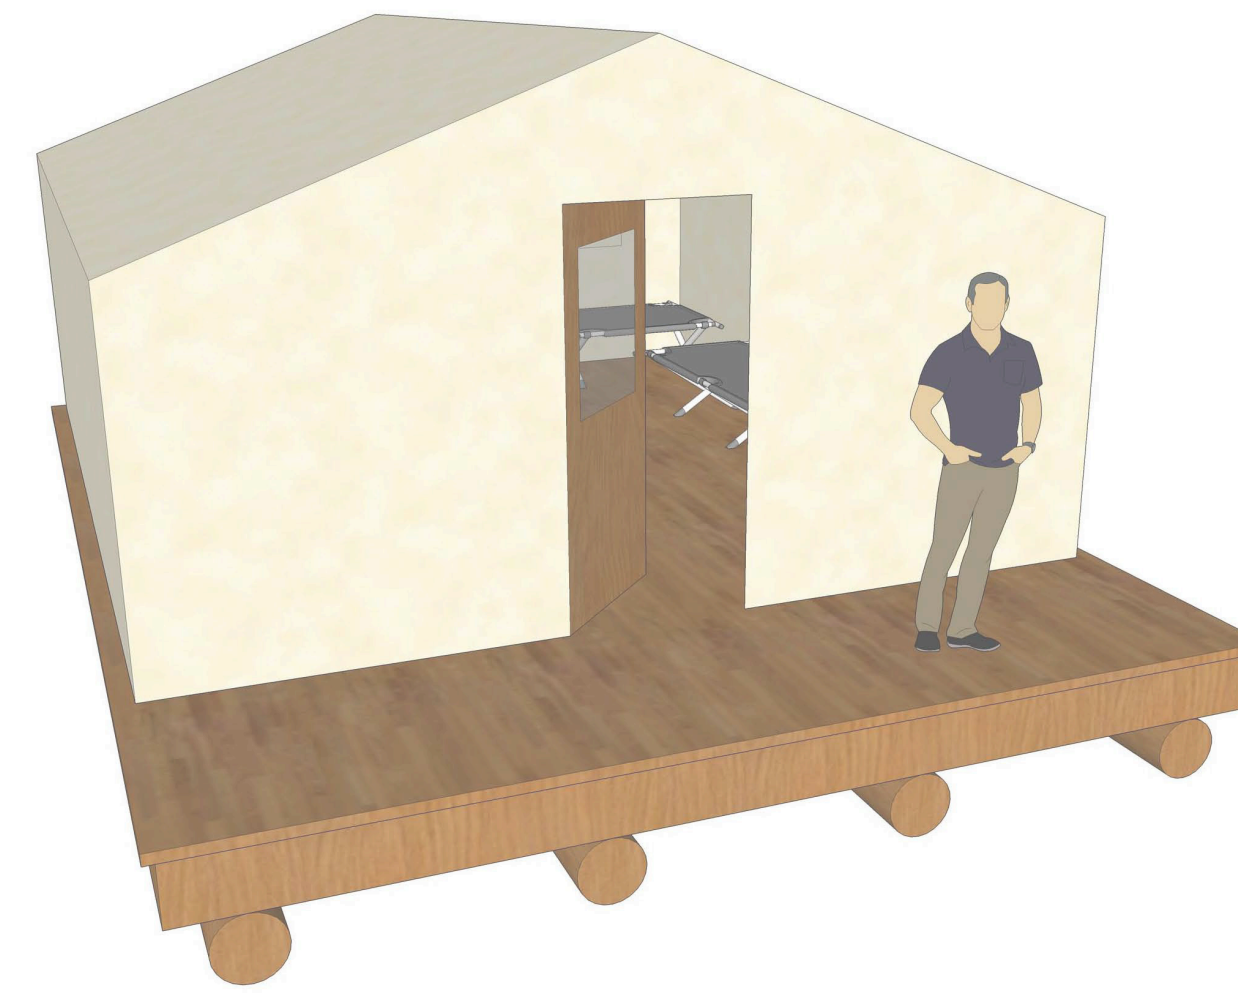

GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

Anderson
Hallas
Architects

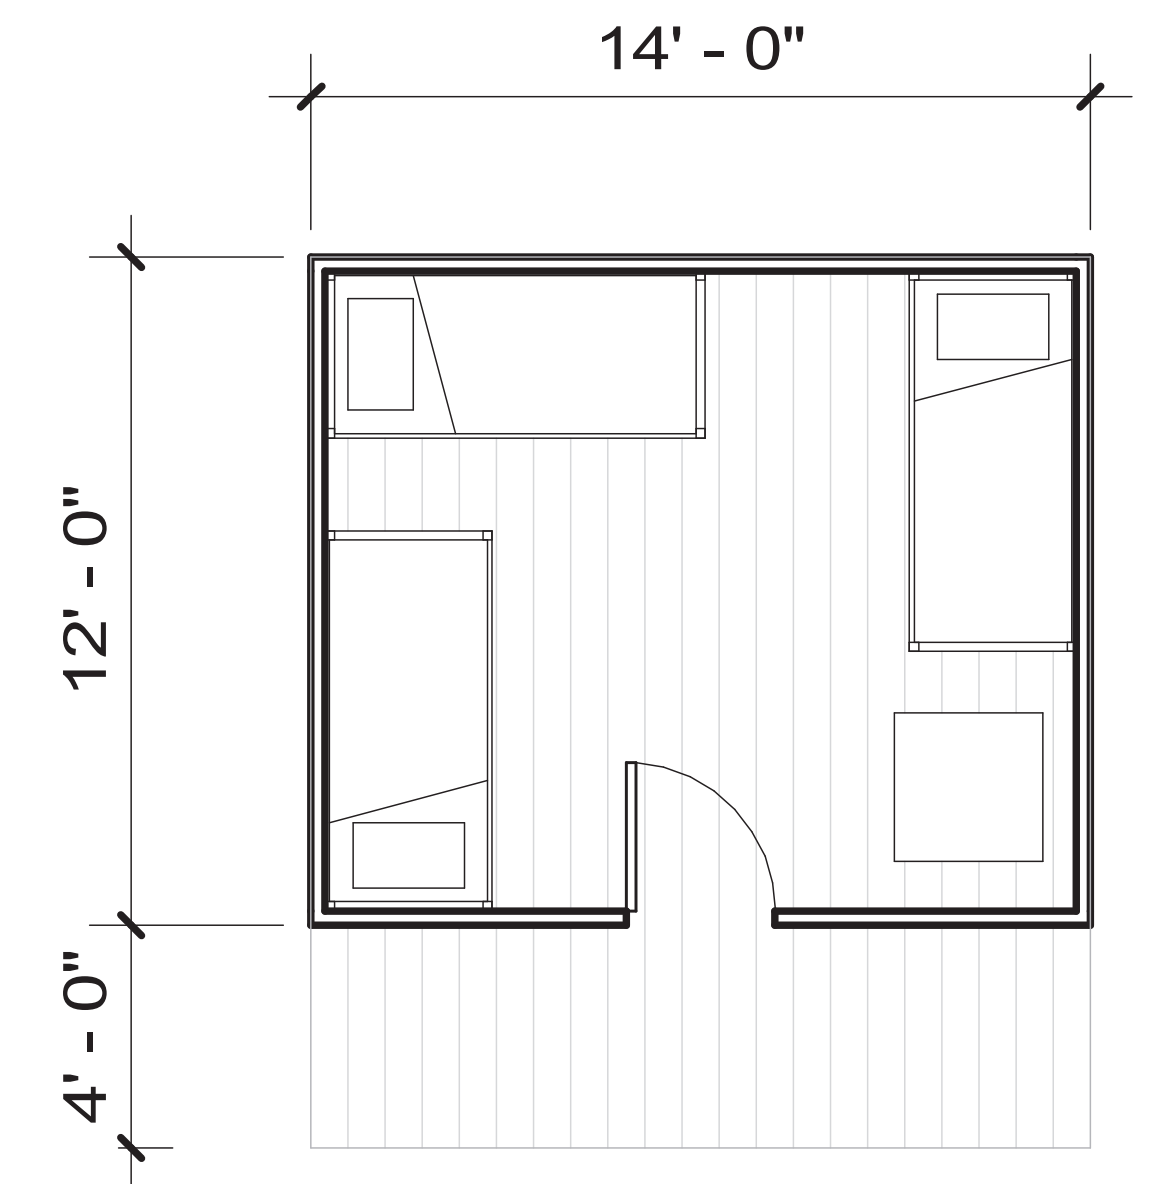

Concept 4: Consider an entirely different approach to providing the Sperry Chalet visitor experience through seasonal tents or yurts; historic walls would be stabilized for visitor interpretation. See “No Action” for ruin stabilization.

5- PERSON TENT
8 TENTS SLEEPING 40

3- PERSON TENT
8 TENTS SLEEPING 24

SPERRY CHALET

CONCEPT # 4 |

GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

Anderson
Hallas
Architects

