

Bracketts Farm Proposal,
Memorial Stone and Surround of Name Blocks, Description Packet

Bracketts Farm, Green Springs National Historic Landmark District

Area of Potential Effect (Yellow) and Site-Plan: Proposed Cemetery Memorial-Stone and Surround of Name-Blocks, Bracketts Farm

Documentary Mapping: The Two Cemeteries ("Grave Yards") Depicted on an 1860 Engraving of Bracketts Farm

Site Plan: Proposed Cemetery Memorial-Stone and Surround of Name-Blocks, Bracketts Farm

Watson-Family Cemetery & headstones (SW corner is 12' from proposed memorial stone & surround) radar-surveyed area: unmarked cemetery

84' (width of radar-surveyed area)

Feet

(faint lines in blue area 2.15' apart)

Ground-Penetrating Radar Mapping, 2016: Unmarked Cemetery South of Watson Family Cemetery, Bracketts Farm

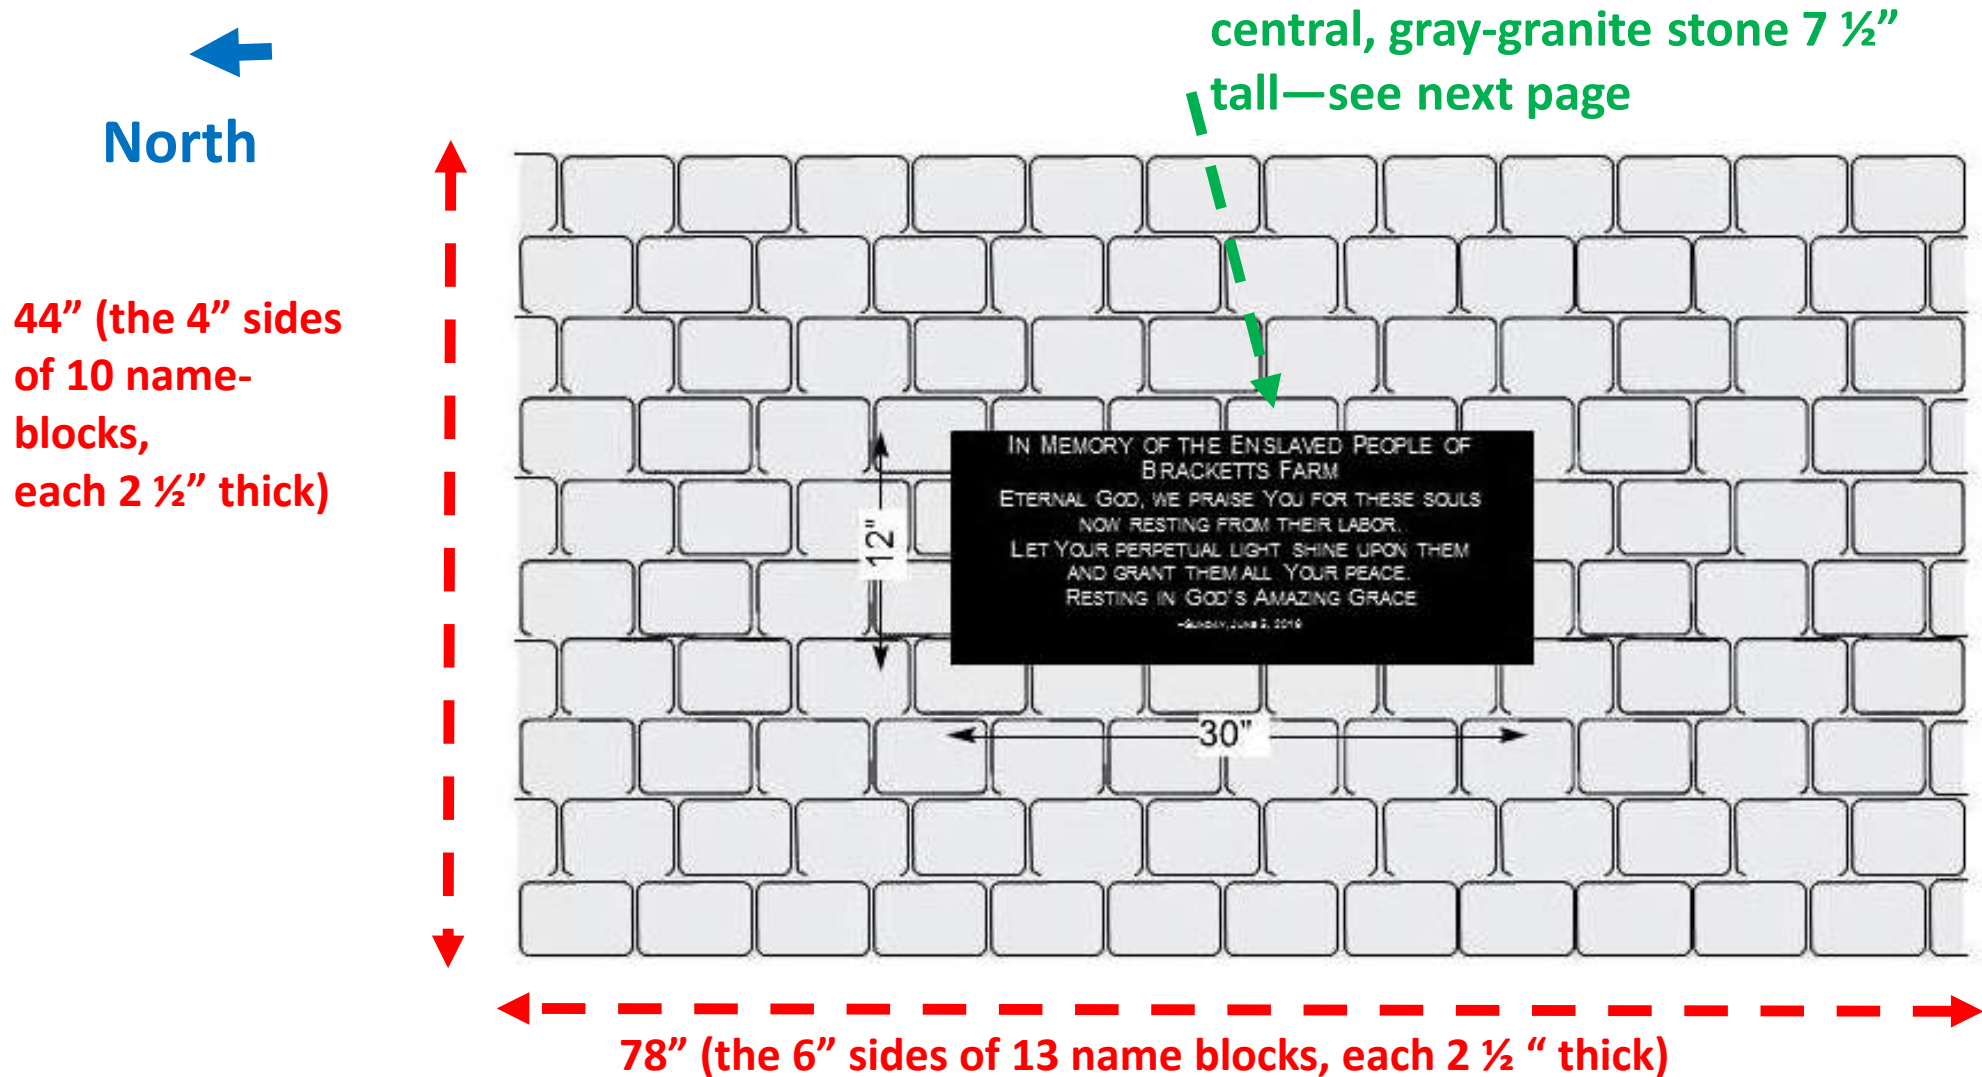

south boundary fence,
Watson Family Cemetery

red line: actual north boundary of radar-surveyed area (blue shading)

red line: actual west
boundary of radar-surveyed
area (blue shading)

Proposed Cemetery Memorial-Stone and Surround of Name-Blocks, Bracketts Farm (130 Gray-Granite Blocks at Grade Level Surrounding 7 1/2"-High Stone) foundation of central stone: 4" concrete pad atop 2" gravel bed; foundation of surround of name-blocks: 2" gravel bed

Proposed, Gray-Granite Memorial Stone: 7 ½" High, 30" Wide x 12" Deep, and on Foundation 6" Deep (Surrounded by Gray-Granite Name Blocks at Grade Level—See Previous Page)

7 ½" height

15-degree slope

North

radar surveyed area around unmarked cemetery south of Watson Family Cemetery location of proposed cemetery memorial-stone and surround

Watson Family Cemetery

Setting and Overview: Looking Southeast from Watson Family Cemetery and from Near Northern Boundary of Area of Potential Effect, Towards Radar-Surveyed, Unmarked Cemetery

Location: Proposed Memorial-Stone and Surround, Looking South from Above Watson Family Cemetery

site of proposed memorial stone & surround

south boundary fence (and southwest corner), Watson Family Cemetery

figure at estimated site of radar-identified grave nearest to proposed memorial-stone & surround nearest edge of Watson

Family
Cemetery:
@ 6 feet off left-edge of photo

box at site of proposed cemetery memorial-stone and surround

Location: Proposed Memorial-Stone and Surround, Looking Southeast Across Radar-Surveyed, Unmarked Cemetery