

Rehabilitation of Visitor Entrance to the Ellwood House Grounds and Cemetery Trail
Wilderness Battlefield
Photos

Ellwood Manor

View looking east toward the entrance to Ellwood grounds from parking area – board fence will be removed and sign will be moved to a location just out of sight to the right

View looking south from Ellwood house grounds to entrance of existing Cemetery walk – the boxwood hedges that line the existing trail will be removed; the trail will be rerouted through the area to the west (right) of the existing trail; the new trail will be a mown path

View looking south from Ellwood house grounds to entrance of existing Cemetery walk (left) – the existing trail will be rerouted through the vegetated area to the west (right) of the existing trail; the new trail will be mown path

View looking west at stairs that bring the cemetery walk from the Ellwood house grounds into the south field area – the steps will be removed and the trail rerouted through the area in the background; the new trail will be a mown path

View looking from the stairs that bring the cemetery walk from the Ellwood house grounds into the south field area – the new trail will be routed through the area in the background; the new trail will be a mown path