Community Meeting Lava Beds National Monument General Management Plan

Help the National Park Service develop the General Management Plan for Lava Beds National Monument. The General Management Plan will describe a vision and goals for the Monument for the next 20 years.

As part of the General Management Plan development, the planning team has produced a set of preliminary management concepts for public review. Each concept has a slightly different approach to future management and visitor opportunities at the Monument. The draft concepts are presented in the 3rd Newsletter for the General Management Plan. Copies of Newsletter 3 are available from the monument and online at the park planning web site listed below.

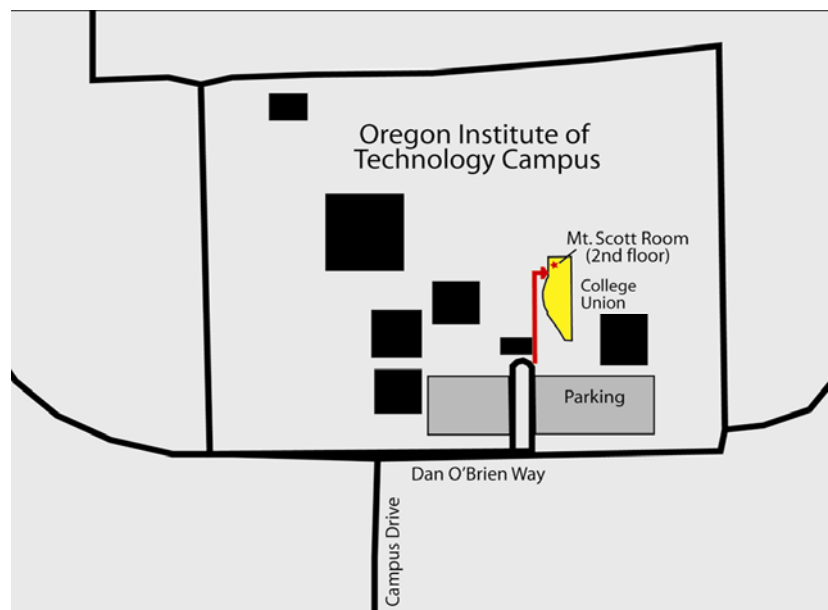

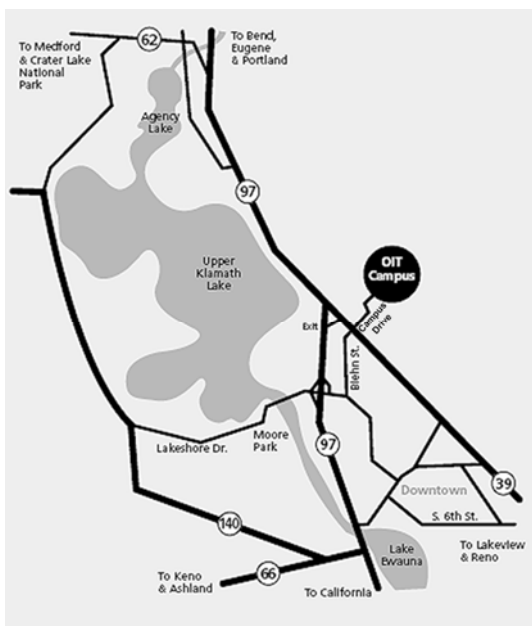

This meeting is an opportunity for you to:

- 1) Learn more about the preliminary management concepts
- 2) Discuss your ideas, thoughts and concerns about the proposed concepts and the future of Lava Beds National Monument
