National Capital Memorial Advisory Commission Notice of Public Meeting

NOTE: VIRTUAL MEETING DUE TO COVID-19 PROTOCOLS

The National Capital Memorial Advisory Commission (the Commission) will hold a meeting on Monday, March 21, at 1:00 p.m. Due to Covid-19 protocols, the meeting will be hosted virtually. Additional information on viewing the livestream for the meeting will be available on the "Meeting Notices" tab on the NCMAC website approximately one week in advance of the meeting: <https://parkplanning.nps.gov/ncmac>

Agenda

The Commission will review:

- The Smithsonian site evaluation study for two newly authorized museums: the American Women's History Museum and the National Museum of the American Latino.
- H.R. 6353/S. 3447, the National Service Animals Memorial Act

The Commission was established by Public Law 99-652, the Commemorative Works Act (40 U.S.C. Chapter 89 et seq.), to advise the Secretary of the Interior (the Secretary) and the Administrator of the General Services Administration (the Administrator) on policy and procedures for establishment of (and proposals to establish) commemorative works in the District of Columbia and its environs, as well as such other matters as it may deem appropriate concerning commemorative works. The Commission examines each memorial proposal for conformance to the Commemorative Works Act and makes recommendations to the Secretary and the Administrator and to Members and Committees of Congress. The Commission also serves as a source of information for persons seeking to establish memorials in Washington, DC, and its environs.
